KNOWING WHO WE ARE PT 2
VOLUME 5, 2024

THE DRAGONSLAYER

From The Editor @ SFA

Greetings in the blessed holy name of our LORD and Savior, Jesus Christ.

As I put pen to paper, so to speak, we have just witnessed tornado-caused devastation in America. A severe weather outbreak barreled across America's heartland over the weekend, producing dozens of tornadoes that tore through communities from Texas to Nebraska and into Iowa. They left at least five people dead as thousands of residents are now in the process of sifting through the debris of destroyed homes and businesses trying to recover whatever belongings may remain.

There have been more than 50 confirmed tornadoes ranging from EF-0 to EF-5, and that number could continue to rise as survey teams from the National Weather Service are still out in full force looking at the damage left behind. Last week we had the most active tornado day of 2024, with the NWS saying it received 88 tornadoes. These tornadoes produced catastrophic damage in cities such as Elkhorn in Nebraska and Minden in Iowa, and specialized response teams were brought in to help survey the destruction.

I ask that you keep those that are facing this devastation in your prayers as they are already saying it could take years to rebuild the destruction. I do indeed believe that God spared many. After watching the videos and reading the reports and the pictures of the miles and miles of destruction, I do believe the amount of destruction and the few lives that were lost was an answer to prayer.

I recently listened to a message by Pastor Peters that was preached many years ago. He profoundly said, "We haven't got a prayer if we don't..... and after a long silence, said PRAY." I believe the power of prayer is more important than ever before. As we look in almost any direction, there is something to pray for and or against!

The truth is we haven't got a prayer if we don't PRAY, and our enemies and/or the enemies of Christ are banking on us not praying! Just as I recently wrote, our survival is based on our repentance and our enemy's survival is based on us not repenting. The two go hand in hand. The chaos that is rampant in our nation—protests, lawlessness and crime, as well as the weather extremes, POINT to the times we are living in, times the Bible describes.

There is chaos all over the world as well — wars in Ukraine, Gaza, and spreading in the Middle East, volcanoes erupting, earthquakes bringing buildings down and causing death and destruction, and famine being discussed more than ever... Again, pointing to the times we are warned of in God's Word. Remember, though, that the true believer and follower of Jesus Christ is NOT to be alarmed....

...In no way alarmed by your opponents—which is a sign of destruction for them, but of salvation for you, and that too, from God.

Philippians 1:28

In this newsletter, I have included an inspiring article by Mrs. Mary Alice Jones, the late wife of Pastor Earl Jones. My wife recently found this and wanted to share it with me. It was something she had not seen before and indeed found it inspiring. It's a story where she tells of a by-gone era, and also of humility and the ability to take Biblical correction and learning. I hope you take the time to read it.

Also I would like to thank you for those of you that have taken the time to correspond with us and place orders with us for some of the exciting new products we are offering, including some old, and some new. We recently announced the fifth printing of Pastor Peters timeless book, "America The Conquered," re-printed and back in stock! Praise the Lord, this took a lot of work, and we are thankful for the robust response!

Take a look on pages 26 and 27 in this month's Newsletter for a summary of the need that we all have for sincere and Biblical prayer. Pastor Peters taught on prayer many times over the years, and we have listed just a few of the timeless teachings that are available to help with the understanding and workings of prayer. Find out how you too can be a prayer warrior with us, in service to the King of Kings, Jesus Christ.

May the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob bless those of you that are His, bless you and keep you, make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you, lift His countenance to you and grant you peace.

In Jesus Christ's service first,

Knowing WHO We Are part 2

Remnant, the following is the rest of the story, regarding knowing who we are, as a people. Part 1 was in last month's DragonSlayer Newsletter.

We have failed as a people

to know our true identity, because of the preachers of the land. Who and what and where did they come from?
We are living in the times of deception,
the times of 2 Thessalonians 2:10-11.

2 Thessalonians 2:10-

11 ...and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. For this reason God will send upon them a deluding influence so that they will believe what is false...

This sorcery against the people of God goes on today. We can clearly see what they have been doing in the devil's city, Washington DC, with the DC Street Sorcery.

(Some related news events....)

At St. Jerome's School in Weymouth, students are making Magic bracelets for cancer patients. The 8th grade girls at St. Jerome's have been making "magic bracelets" for children in the oncology unit at Boston hospitals. Erin Crowley, who started the project, sorts pieces of material to make the bracelets.

Rabbi Azulai is fully committed to kabbalah magic. He writes, “special talismans for people to ensure their success in love and business. Some of these protective talismans include kabbalah bracelets, or rather the famous kabbalah red bracelets. A kabbalah red string bracelet provides health and protection from evil forces, specifically”

The good news is that it stops the sorcery is taken away and we read about it in Micah Chapter 5.

Micah 5:1-15 Birth of the King in Bethlehem

“Now muster yourselves in troops, daughter of troops; They have laid siege against us; With a rod they will smite the judge of Israel on the cheek. But as for you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, Too little to be among the clans of Judah, From you One will go forth for Me to be ruler in Israel. His goings forth are from long ago, From the days of eternity.”

Therefore He will give them up until the time When she who is in labor has borne a child. Then the remainder of His brethren Will return to the sons of Israel. And He will arise and shepherd His flock In the strength of the LORD, In the majesty of the name of the LORD His God. And they will remain, Because at that time He will be great To the ends of the earth. This One will be our peace. When the Assyrian invades our land, When he tramples on our citadels, Then we will raise against him Seven shepherds and eight leaders of men. They will shepherd the land of Assyria with the sword, The land of Nimrod at its entrances; And He will deliver us from the Assyrian When he attacks our land And when he tramples our territory. Then the remnant of Jacob Will be among many peoples Like dew from the LORD, Like showers on vegetation Which do not wait for man Or delay for the sons of men. The remnant of Jacob Will be among the nations, Among many peoples Like a lion among the beasts of the forest, Like a young lion among flocks of sheep, Which, if he passes through, Tramples down and tears, And there is none to rescue. Your hand will be lifted up against your adversaries, And all your enemies will be cut off. “It will be in that day,” declares the LORD, “That I will cut off your horses from among you And destroy your chariots. I will also cut off the cities of your land And tear down all your fortifications. I will cut off sorceries from your hand, And you will have fortune-tellers no more. I will cut off your carved images And your sacred pillars from among you, So that you will no longer bow down To the work of your hands. I will root out your Asherim from among you And destroy your cities. And I will execute vengeance in anger and wrath On the nations which have not obeyed.”

There is something we must get. It is something our enemies have understood for a long time and that is there is a war it has been raging against His people, the Germanic, Scandinavian, Celtic and kindred people, the Chosen people of Israel. Our people. And they intend on wiping us out as a nation.

We are talking about the terrors, sons of the devil, and that is why we must fight to stop it, to stomp satan under the feet of the saints.

We know from the words of Zachariah 4:6 that is not by might nor by power but by My Spirit says the LORD of hosts. We must get back to the Spirit of the Lord!

Swing that sword of the spirit that we put on every day when we put the Full Armor of God on, (of Ephesians 6), including the sword of the spirit, which is the Word of God. We need to abide in the word and pray.

We need to pray the way King David prayed, kill them!

And take THE HELMET OF SALVATION, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. With all prayer and petition pray at all times in the Spirit, and with this in view, be on the alert with all perseverance and petition for all the saints...

We need to kindle the fire and become the flame of Obadiah 1:18.

Then the house of Jacob will be a fire And the house of Joseph a flame; But the house of Esau will be as stubble And they will set them on fire and consume them, So that there will be no survivor of the house of Esau...

If we read our Bibles we could clearly understand so much more than we do about our enemies, about the enemies of Christ.

John 15:18 If the world hates you, you know that it has hated Me before it hated you.

Luke 1:68-71 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, For He has visited us and accomplished redemption for His people...

And has raised up a horn of salvation for us In the house of David His servant--As He spoke by the mouth of His holy prophets from of old-- Salvation FROM OUR ENEMIES, And FROM THE HAND OF ALL WHO HATE US;

They are enemies do hate. It is a real hate. They want to destroy us, satan wants to destroy us, the tare, sons-of-hell want to destroy us. We have a duty to not only be aware, but to be on guard and love the Lord. What must we do if we want to love the Lord? We must hate the evil.

Psalm 97:10 Hate evil, you who love the LORD, Who preserves the souls of His godly ones; He delivers them from the hand of the wicked.

We, as a people, can not have a love for our people, our God, or our Nation without having a hatred for those who would try to destroy it.

We, as a people, MUST realize who we are and WHERE we come from, and WHO our God really is.

We know that Esau-Edom has been revealed as the MAN OF SIN (KJV) or the MAN OF LAWLESSNESS (NASB). He has been revealed and is taking his seat in the temple of God. If you have not read the book entitled, Revealing the Man of Sin, by Pastor Peters, you really should.

52 Years of Love

by Mary Alice Jones

A few weeks ago I went to the window and looked out in the yard of our ranch house in southern New Mexico. It was a beautiful day. The sun was shining, a few fluffy clouds floated overhead in a bright blue sky and purple mountains rose in the background. To my delight I spotted a small herd of antelope coming in for water at our little lake. Also, near the house was a dear little family of quail with Mama and Papa bustling along guiding the young ones. It made me think of my husband and me when we were rearing our three little sons.

You see, that day was our fifty-second anniversary! I had just prayed to God, thanking him for allowing us to have another year in good health and great happiness and for allowing us to serve Him in our "declining years." I prayed for our sons (who are now in their forties) and from the depth of my heart, I thanked God for the husband whom He had chosen for me back during World War II in 1943. I am firmly convinced that God drew us together, and we didn't even understand.

All of this got me to thinking. Why is our marriage such a happy one? I giggled as I remembered the joke someone had told us about the couple who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. The next day the wife went to their attorney and filed for divorce! When he asked her why in the world she would want to break up their marriage after 50 years, she drew herself up and proclaimed, "Well, the way I see it, enough is enough!" Thank goodness I didn't feel that way!

Perhaps I should introduce myself. My name is Mary Alice Jones, and I have been Mrs. Earl Franklin Jones for most of my life. What a joy!

Earl and I listened to a wonderful message by a Pastor at a conference in Branson, Missouri this year. He preached on Marriage. All the time he was speaking I was mentally jumping up and down and thinking, "You're right! You're right! Women, listen to him!" Sometimes when he made a point, Earl and I would reach for each other's hand and squeeze; we were so in agreement.

What did he say, and how did it apply to our successful marriage? First, he pointed out that men are the Bishop's of their homes. I have heard other speakers say Kings and Priests, or "head." Since I was the product of a broken home, reared only by a very Godly mother, I was thrilled to death to have a man by my side who could make difficult decisions and get me off the hook; so to speak. If I could not quite go along with some idea I would usually think, "Well, I probably just don't understand." Even when a decision Earl made didn't work out as he had planned, my attitude was, "Well, nobody is perfect! The world isn't going to come to an end over this!" And usually it didn't!

An example of letting Earl be the Bishop of his home is when he decided that we should buy a car. He was in college, and I really didn't think we could afford it, but we finally found an ancient old Buick. Earl proudly drove it off the lot and out onto a little country road. He pulled over, stopped the car and got out! "I'm going to teach you to drive," he announced. He did, and in a short time I got my driver's license. I have been driving ever since. Remember, I am 70 years old, and that is a lot of driving! Suppose I had pouted and then screamed and yelled because I didn't think he was making the right decision. I might still be riding a bicycle!

The Pastor also pointed out that men are "future" oriented, while women are more involved with the present. I can say "Amen" to that! All of these 52 years I have watched Earl dream of something and then, when he felt the time was right, make his move and accomplish it. This goes all the way back to when he wrote me from a foxhole in France during World War II. He said that it had been announced to the men that the president had just signed, "The G.I. Bill." When he came home from the war he could go to college, if I would be willing to go on teaching until he finished.

I would have preferred that he come home from the war and get a job! However, I went along with it and did it pay off! From college he went to work at White Sands Missile Range here in New Mexico, where in the course of his career in Civil Service, he became Project Manager for Engineering Tests for the Nike Ajax, the Nike Hercules and the Patriot Missile systems. When he retired, he was in the top one-half of one percent of all the civilian employees of our government. Again, suppose I had stamped my foot, screamed, yelled and insisted that he go get a job when he came home from the war because I was more worried about the present than the future?

Another thing that the minister said was that men need admiration. When a man stands before that altar and promises, before God, to love, comfort, honor and keep his wife in sickness and health, he is taking on a tremendous responsibility. He is the one who must provide the food, clothing and shelter. He is the one who must be the Rock of Gibraltar during times of adversity. In the terrible world we live in today, often the wife must share that responsibility just so the bills can be paid. However, before God, it is still his responsibility. I don't see how we can help but admire our husbands. We may wish they would mow the lawn a little sooner, or play with the children more often, or sit and visit with us more frequently. If we really analyze the effort that goes into their day, I think we will have to admit that some of the things that we think are important are just not top priority with them!

I remember meeting a precious woman, who had just lost her husband about two months before. She had reached the stage where she could talk about his death. and her loneliness, without crying. As she and I visited, she got to talking about the things she missed now that she was alone. She missed his dirty socks on the floor and his messy plate that he didn't quite empty like she did her plate. She missed his jokes that she had heard before and his gentle snore in the night. The more she talked, the more I realized how all wives should take that to heart. When we get frustrated, because our husband doesn't see something our way, just imagine what it would be like if he were no longer living. It brings it into the proper perspective, doesn't it?

I have admired Earl ever since we met. Here was a young man who, with his older brother, joined the Army two months after the bombing of Pearl Harbor. He went to fight in "the war to end all wars." We know now that was a farce, but at the time we were young and innocent. Again, I admired him as he kept receiving promotions as he moved through his career. Most of all, I admired him for the kind of father he was.

Since I had such a feminine upbringing, I was afraid I would make sissies of our sons. But Daddy took care of that. We went to all their baseball games, band concerts and other activities. Every night we five had supper together at a round dining table, where we could look each other in the eye. We didn't just ask the usual questions like, "What did you learn in school today?" We really got into their lives by asking what went right at school that day, or what went wrong and what caused it either. What could we learn from decisions that different students had made? I will admit it was kind of hard to answer some questions like, "Mom, when you take a girl to a football game, why does she cry if we lose the game?" We wish we had heard that Pastor's talk about then. He pointed out that men think more with reason, while women think with emotion. To the boys it was just a game, while the girls sympathized with the players who lost the game!

Of course, Earl and I taught them a Christian ethic. One of our favorite expressions was, "Nice people don't do that." He taught them to hunt and fish. and camp. He also taught them to run machinery, fix it when it broke down and do all of those things that he-men do. Also, he taught them to work and stick with a job until it was finished and done right. "The Jones' boys" are still famous for being hard workers!

In all of this that you have read, have you felt that something was missing? I'll bet you have. The part that was missing in our early life was the Bible! Sure, I had taught Sunday School and sung in the choir in the Methodist church that I attended in El Paso, Texas. Earl even got up early and stoked the fire in the furnace of a Methodist church in Fort Wayne, Indiana, that was in the same block as his home. He even rang the bell in the tower at the appropriate time. However, as we look back, we remember it more as a social life than a religious experience. I am sure many of you will agree with us.

However, when we learned the truth that the Bible was written to and about the white, Celto-Saxon people of the world, that they were the Israel of the Bible, "God's chosen people," it completely changed our life. We devoured the Bible and read everything we could get our hands on about the subject. When Earl had quadruple-bypass, open heart surgery and recovered faster than anyone we had ever heard of, he cried out to God, "Why did you restore to health an old worn-out engineer like me? I am not worthy, because I have not understood the great truths all of these years. What do You want me to do with the rest of my life?" After much soul-searching, he felt called to serve God in the ministry using that engineering mind to teach people the Truth. The operation was almost eighteen years ago, and his health is excellent. Do you see why we feel so blessed?

You can't imagine what an eye-opener the Bible was to me concerning the wife's place in the scheme of things under God. When I was young we were taught that marriage was a 50/50 proposition, like a business partnership. When I learned that Eve was created to be a helper to Adam, and not a "partner," I was amazed. "Neither was the man created for the woman but the woman for the man." (I Corinthians 11:9)

Also, when I read that we are not to teach the men, I really had to back down! As a former schoolteacher, I felt I could be called on to teach any group, or individual, anything I knew about. Then, I began to realize something. The more I tried to conform to what I thought God wanted me to do, the more Earl seemed to fall in love with me all over again!

Don't get me wrong. Earl and I have always loved each other dearly, and we are also "best friends." The change I have noticed is that I don't know how many times a day he tells me he loves me, and I don't know how many times I get a hug as we pass in the hall. Often that includes a kiss, too! He often tells me that he adores me and that he doesn't know what he would do without me. Maybe you think that doesn't keep me going?! The Pastor, in his message on marriage, had pointed out how important physical and verbal expressions are in a marriage, and we are living proof of that.

It is all so logical. It is built into women to want to do things for others. When there is a death in the neighborhood, who cooks or bakes something and takes it over to the family? Who usually buys the birthday presents? Which parent is the one who usually comforts their child who has either a physical or emotional problem? Remember that God has put His laws in our hearts. We know that we are not supposed to murder or steal, don't we? We are also supposed to live by God's rules for women. Right? This shows that wives who yell and scream at their husbands and criticize them are not following what God has put in their hearts. I guess it all boils down to, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you," and that includes the way we treat our husbands.

TURMERIC?

TURMERIC

Our standardized organic turmeric with Bioperine "Black Pepper" meets our high expectations as a company that strives to only sell what we ourselves would take. It is a product we fully stand behind.

I've personally been taking four capsules daily for months to help negate inflammation and reduce auto-immune symptoms. I can usually start to tell the difference when I go off of it for a while, that tell-tale soreness starts to creep into my feet when they hit the floor first thing in the morning. We believe this is one of the highest quality Turmeric products on the market today!

Turmeric's vast array of health benefits, from improving heart health and brain function to potentially aiding in cancer prevention and arthritis relief, makes it a remarkable addition to a healthy lifestyle. By incorporating turmeric into your diet, you're not just enjoying its flavor but also leveraging its therapeutic potential. However, the key to reaping these benefits is moderation and ensuring it complements a balanced diet and healthy lifestyle.

FROM the Prison Ministry

The SFA Prison Ministry has been around for 35-plus years, growing from a combination of obedience to the Scriptures in regard to forgetting not the prisoners.

“Remember the prisoners, as though in prison with them, and those who are badly treated, since you yourselves also are in the body.”

Hebrews 13:3

SFA combined with Col. Jack Mohr’s Prison Ministry, who always had an extensive Prison Outreach. Since he had been a POW in the Korean War, he had a special spot in his heart for those that are incarcerated. SFA has always offered the DragonSlayer Newsletter Magazine, as well as the 16-part Bible Law Correspondence Course, FREE to prisoners that request it. SFA also has made paperback NASB Bibles FREE to prisoners, as well as Pastor Peters’ writings, his booklets and pamphlets, available to the incarcerated that request material.

We here at SFA have always considered our Prison Ministry as a sowing-of-the-seed and encouragement type of Ministry, by freely spreading the truths of the Word of God to those prisoners that asked. We rarely see or are made aware of the outcome or ‘fruit’ that comes from sowing the WORD in the prisons, but we do it in obedience to the WORD. John 4:37 reminds us that, one sows and another reaps. We are thankful that we have been blessed to be able to sow the WORD of God into the prisons across America.

We wanted to share with you, the Remnant, a couple of the pieces that WE got back from prisoners. Just as the one that was healed came back and thanked Jesus, we do get word from some prisoners of the appreciation and thankfulness they have for being on the SFA Prison Ministry. Hopefully it is an encouragement to you too, as we all do our best to obey Hebrews 13.

Every year we send thousands of pieces of mail to those in prison with the mission of reaching them with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Our goal is to bring light to a dark place; light to those have found themselves on a challenging path. This all comes at a great expense, and the costs have become much higher as postal rates continue to rise. Paper and printing prices are the highest we have ever experienced, not to count how many prisoners are being added on a monthly basis. Please remember the SFA Prison Ministry and its growing needs. Thank you and God bless. SFA

From the Mailbag

Dear Jason,

It must be over thirty years now since I heard the first message, "The Greatest Bible Discovery of Our Age," by Pastor Peters. How our country has changed. IT almost seems impossible that the changes could take place so fast, but then Amos warned the House of Israel and forty years later they were marching to Assyria in chains. Will we even make another ten years?

Weak leadership in America is no different than is Israel of past history. Bad king, bad times on the way. Big brother is watching more all the time.

Good News: God is still on the Throne and Jesus will Reign!

Hello SFA Family,

Thank you for all the work you do for the ministry, Jason. The week's wrap-up of current events with you, Richard, is always interesting. Of course, we enjoy Pastor Peters' "Biblically correct" filled sermons. I remember how blown I was when we first started listening to him. The number of Scriptures quoted and discussed was phenomenal. Listening to him on Sundays was a welcomed change. Much like Zack. Wowser! Scripture after Scripture, he is so like his mentor. Zack's sermons are spot on. SFA has found a true gem in the gentleman from Michigan. Thank you, Zack.

I wanted to make a constructive comment though. Some of Pastor Peters sermons are broadcast 2, 3, maybe more, times a year. With 30+ years of recorded sermons, I would think it would be a long time before a sermon was repeated. Perhaps a spreadsheet with sermon title and broadcast date would help minimize duplicity. Just my 2 cents.

Thanks again for continuing Pastor Peters' ministry.

To SFA,

This is a request that you please REMOVE my name from your mailing list. I never requested the DragonSlayer Newsletter to begin with (about 8 years ago), or sent any tithe to you, but I read through them anyway.

I am and always had been in disagreement with your Anglo-Israel replacement theology doctrine. (by the way, to be fair, that doctrine of yours is one of many that are the same, with different race, religions, etc, all claiming to be Israel, or God's chosen people.

I could definitely show you the error of your teachings, but I'm sure you have heard it all before. Then it becomes (to you) that you are being persecuted or falsely accused for the Gospel's sake.

I do want to say this; "THE MOST HIGH-rebuke you in the name of Jesus!"

I have learned much from your false teachings, so I do pray that others do the same. (truth from the false) 1 John 2:20,27

So, keep doing what you do.

A prisoner (Spiritual Israel)

Remnant, another perfect example of the blind wanting to lead and teach and correct. Will the likes of these EVER repent and turn to the Truth of the WORD of God, Jesus Christ? We remain in prayer and work to further the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

SFA

A Help for Prayer

Prayer. Often needed, seldom truly used. We are told that, as the Children of God, we can and should cry out to our God for our needs and, for our health and healing, and should call out to him for our family, our neighbors and our nation.

Pastor Peters taught about prayer many times. Here are just a few of the messages that he brought on the importance of prayer in the true Christian's life.

- CD 143 A Formula for Effective Prayer
- CD 473 A Lesson on Prayer
- CD 452 The Unused Weapon
- CD 455 Use the Weapon
- CD 499 Perfecting Prayer
- CD 641 Teach Us to Pray
- CD 644 Prayer Crime
- CD 647 Prayer: The Litmus Test
- CD 650 Proper Prayer Perspective
- CD 652 Hindrance to Prayer
- CD 739 Pray Psalms 83
- CD 1318 Wrath Endurance Prayer

We also have the treatise that we have always asked those requesting prayer to read. It includes the writing from Pastor Peters, Healing Is Our Born-Again Birthright. It is free to those that request it.

Two other books that do a great job of explain the need and proper Biblical use of prayer are, The Kneeling Christian, and, Christ the Healer. Both are available from SFA.

We also encourage you to join us for the LIVE Wednesday Night Prayer Meetings, streamed at the website, SFAW.org. We take written letter, email and phone prayer requests, and pray for the Remnant as requested. Read the following Scriptures and see if YOU could be a benefit to others, and also be blessed yourself, by becoming a Prayer Warrior and joining us for the Prayer Meetings, every Wednesday night, 7 am mtn, 8 am central.

Is anyone among you suffering? Then he must pray. Is anyone cheerful? He is to sing praises. Is anyone among you sick? Then he must call for the elders of the church and they are to pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord; and the prayer offered in faith will restore the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up, and if he has committed sins, they will be forgiven him. Therefore, confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another so that you may be healed. The effective prayer of a righteous man can accomplish much. Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months. Then he prayed again, and the sky poured rain and the earth produced its fruit.

James 5:13-18

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and pleading with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:6-7

After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever.

Amen.

Matthew 6:9-13 KJV

First of all, then, I urge that requests, prayers, intercession, and thanksgiving be made in behalf of all people, for kings and all who are in authority, so that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and dignity. This is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, who wants all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. 1 Timothy 2:1-4

Needed Supplements

Pau D'Arco

A list of “folklore” uses include fighting infection, cancer, topical skin infections, prostate infections, pain relief, fights viruses, as well as candida or fungal overgrowth. Western medicine has begun to study some of them, with possibilities such as helping UTIs with its antimicrobial properties, reducing inflammation by increasing the Nrf2-target genes, a protein that regulates the expression of antioxidant proteins that protect against oxidative damage, triggered by injury or inflammation. A 2001 study showed its ability to lower feelings of pain by reducing the sensory processing of it, specifically related to arthritis, swelling and certain kinds of cancer.

2 oz tincture $36.00

1 pound bulk tea $29.95

Flax Lignan

The SDG lignan not only has anti-cancer properties, it also has anti-viral, anti-bacterial, and anti-fungal properties. It is also a potent anti-oxidant. It has been shown to enhance immune system functioning, and is effective against many different diseases.
