THE DRAGONSLAYER

SCALP DANCE

Some of the most savage war in world history was waged on the American Plains from 1865 to 1879. As settlers moved west following the Civil War, they found powerful Indian tribes barring the way. When the U.S. Army intervened, a bloody and prolonged conflict ensued. Drawing heavily from diaries, letters, and memoirs from American Plains settlers, historian

Thomas Goodrich weaves a spell-binding tale of life and death on the prairie, told in the timeless words of the participants themselves. Scalp Dance is a powerful, unforgettable epic that shatters modern myths.

From the Sand Creek Massacre in 1864 through Custer's Last Stand in 1876 to the final defeat of the mighty Sioux and Cheyenne nations in 1878, Scalp Dance reveals the bloody, bitter clashes between two cultures--one bent on conquest, the other defending its land in the only way it knew how.

From The Editor @ SFA

Greetings in the blessed holy name of our LORD and Savior, Jesus Christ.

It is hard to believe that we are already halfway through the calendar year of 2024. There are so many things that are taking place and so many things that have happened, it is really hard to keep track of the current events. I am certain that one of the things that has taken place, and as the Scripture says, it is for our survival, and that is that time is being cut short.

Unless those days had been cut short, no life would have been saved; but for the sake of the elect those days will be cut short.

One of the things that we have been talking about for quite some time, and has definitely ramped up, is the continued invasion that is happening right before our eyes. Recently I saw this headline.

US federal lawmakers recently asked to declare Tren de Aragua a transnational criminal organization, calling the group, "an invading criminal army," and claiming the gang's members have spread "brutality and chaos" in the United States.

What was interesting was, three months prior, they were saying we had no threat of Venezuelan's invading and that we had very few (Venezuelan's) here and not to worry about it. Just recently we have had a surge in well-organized robberies by Venezuelans that have happened all over the US, in cities such as Houston, Chicago, New Jersey, New York, etc., and just yesterday, here in Denver. Now we can add to the list of invading forces those coming from Honduras, Haiti, Cuba, Ecuador, Turkey and Pakistan, and I am sure there are more.

It took a lengthy fight, but House Republicans have finally uncovered a list of all the U.S. cities to which the Biden administration has been quietly flying HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS of illegal immigrants to. We suspected it was happening and heard the rumors. But the documents, finally released under a subpoena from the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) – under the leadership of Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas, show just how bad it is. This is under a program DHS established for people from Cuba, Haiti, Nicaragua, and Venezuela. You know, hell-hole countries that have been run into the ground. The United States CANNOT be the place of refuge for every person on this planet, "just seeking a better way of life." We've got over 8+ MILLION illegal immigrants who have poured across our border after Joe Biden implemented policies to make it wide open. This is unsustainable! Medical services, social services, educational systems – you name it, all the critical elements of our society are facing severe strain because THIS PRESIDENT has deliberately facilitated and encouraged MILLIONS of illegal immigrants to come. And it's not just border towns! Every town in America is a border town now! It is not just happening here. It is happening to our friends in Canada in much the same way.

There are now more unemployed people living in Toronto than in the entirety of Quebec. Over 317,000 people living in the Greater Toronto Area are now unemployed. At the same time, Ontario is taking in millions of new immigrants. There simply aren't enough jobs for the number of people who now live in Southern Ontario. The effects of Justin Trudeau's mass immigration agenda aren't only affecting their economic numbers, but now homelessness, food insecurity and crime are also on the rise.

Even with all these things happening all around us, I personally have a peace, because I know who ultimately is in charge. I know that our God has a chosen people, and they are being used in different ways. I believe this Scripture in Micah is right where we are at today.

Now, why do you cry out loudly? Is there no king among you, Or has your counselor perished, That agony has gripped you like a woman in childbirth? Writhe and scream, Daughter of Zion, Like a woman in childbirth; For now you will go out of the city, Live in the field, And go to Babylon. There you will be rescued, There the Lord will redeem you From the hand of your enemies. And now many nations have been assembled against you Who say, 'Let her be defiled, And let our eyes gloat over Zion!' But they do not know the thoughts of the Lord, And they do not understand His plan; For He has gathered them like sheaves to the threshing floor. Arise and thresh, daughter of Zion, For I will make your horn iron, And I will make your hoofs bronze, So that you may pulverize many peoples, And dedicate to the Lord their unjust profit, And their wealth to the Lord of all the earth.

Micah 4:9-13

After digesting (so to speak) Micah 4:9-13, there's a little more. I believe we are living in a time when we need to be in a state where we are prayed up, trained up, and prepared up, because there will be a time when we are called to thresh!

On another note, I wanted to share with you the two books that I recently was able to obtain. The first is, Scalp Dance. It is a fantastic, historically accurate book and was one of Pastor Peters' favorites. He wanted several times to get this book and offer it, but for years it was out of print and not published. The second book is, Execution by Hunger, The Hidden Holocaust. It gives a first-hand, eyewitness account on events that took place when Stalin gave the order to starve millions of Ukrainian farmers. We are offering them for the first time this month.

May the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob bless those of you that are His, bless you and keep you, make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you, lift His countenance to you and grant you peace.

In Jesus Christ's service first,
Pastor Peter John Peters' second,

Everything I Want To Do Is Illegal

War Stories from the Local Food Front

Drawing upon 40 years' experience as an ecological farmer and marketer, Joel Salatin explains with humor and passion why Americans do not have the freedom to choose the food they purchase and eat. From child labor regulations to food inspection, bureaucrats provide themselves sole discretion over what food is available in the local marketplace. Their system favors industrial, global corporate food systems and discourages community-based food commerce, resulting in homogenized selection, mediocre quality, and exposure to non-organic farming practices. Salatin's expert insight explains why local food is expensive and difficult to find and will illuminate for the reader a deeper understanding of the industrial food complex. $23.95

You Can Farm

The Entrepreneur's Guide to Start & Succeed in a Farming Enterprise

Have you ever desired, deep within your soul, to make a comfortable full-time living from a farming enterprise? Too often people dare not even vocalize this desire because it seems absurd. It's like thinking the unthinkable.

But for farm entrepreneurs, the opportunities for a farm family business have never been greater. The aging farm population is creating cavernous niches begging to be filled by creative visionaries who will go in dynamic new directions. As the industrial agriculture complex crumbles and our culture clambers for clean food, the countryside beckons anew with profitable farming opportunities. While this book can be helpful to all farmers, it targets the wannabes, the folks who actually entertain notions of living, loving and learning on a piece of land. Anyone willing to dance with such a dream should be able to assess its assets and liabilities; its fantasies and realities. “Is it really possible for me?” is the burning question this book addresses. $35.00

Going to the Prophets part 2

GOING TO THE PROPHETS AND TO BABYLON PART 2

A NATION WITHIN
THE PROPHECY AND THE PROOF

To understand prophecy presently taking place, we must understand the word "Assyrian." That is the nation name given to the enemy that the prophetic nation of Micah, Chapter 4, must be rescued from.

...and go to Babylon, there you will be rescued. There the Lord will redeem you from the hand of your enemies. Micah 4:10

Reading on, Micah identifies the enemy as the Assyrian.

Micah 5:5-6: And this One will be our peace. When the Assyrian invades our land, when he tramples on our citadels, then we will rise against him. Seven shepherds and eight leaders of men. And they will shepherd the land of Assyria with the sword, the land of Nimrod at its entrances; and He will deliver us from the Assyrian when he attacks our land and when he tramples our territory.

As per this prophecy, the Assyrian has already attacked and invaded our land. It's the same invasion Joel writes of concerning the locust and palmer worm destroying the land. Micah says he tramples on our citadels and territory. The following quote from a radio listener in Florida will help one understand this prophecy.

I write to exclaim that I miss my America, the land that I was born into. I grew up in a small town in Penna, called Saxonburg, a small farming village that provided the goods the local farmers and country dwellers needed. From our farm, I could see the steeple of the White Church, the cornerstone of which was laid in 1832. It is a beautiful church and has many fond memories for me. The last time I was there it shocked me how the town had changed and what had become of the community. It once was a collection of Beckman's, Millers, Stighner; Gerlacks, Stewarts, Crowley's, and Stubens, and many other Anglo-Saxon names. As I drove up the main street, I recalled as a child the street had cobble stones. Horses and buggies were lashed to the hitching rails. Sure, there were pickup trucks and Model "T" Fords and Chevy's, but there weren't anybody but white people in attendance. Taint' no more. I went to a one-room school in the village of Jefferson Center because we didn't own property in the borough of Saxonburg, so I attended the Twp school!

What a wonderful school it was too! Every morning Mrs. Kingan would have one of the students read the Bible, then the morning prayer and then we saluted the flag. All the Christian celebrations, Thanksgiving, Christmas were a joyous and wonderful spiritual time for me and all the others. Not anymore! It's "happy holidays" not Merry Christmas and God Bless you. No. No!

That is no longer a place that I would want to live, thanks to the Gov't and the INS, to include the ACLU and others that have an agenda to make this country a sort of "Brown" country! There are murders, rapes, and many other crimes which foster terror in the hearts of good folks. I wouldn't send my children to a school in the area for no one's money. It is what it is, a Ghetto, alive with crime and police. The people lay awake at night with fear and anxiety in their minds. We used to give the death penalty for rape. The last rapist was executed in 1964. Since then, rape has risen because they were deprived culturally.

Well, just a few words to let you know that we are many, and we are out there.

Now, the writer is saddened by the scene he describes, but remember, the serpent people, who are a nation within a nation, delight in such a scene. They feel a sense of satisfaction for they have done their job well. A job they have done many times before and a job they were commissioned by God to do.

The prophet, Moses, wrote about it in the Book of Deuteronomy when he gave a latter-day prophecy. Deuteronomy 31:24-30:

And it came about, when Moses finished writing the words of this law in a book until they were complete, That Moses commanded the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the Lord, saying, "Take this book of the law and place it beside the ark of the covenant of the Lord your God, that it may remain there as a witness against you.

For I know your rebellion and your stubbornness; behold, while I am still alive with you today, you have been rebellious against the Lord; how much more, then, after my death? Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes and your officers, that I may speak these words in their hearing and call the heavens and the earth to witness against them.

For I know that after my death you will act corruptly and turn from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will befall you in the latter days, for you will do that which is evil in the sight of the Lord, provoking Him to anger with the work of your hands. "

Then Moses spoke in the hearing of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song, until they were complete.

When reading the prophecy called the Song of Moses, he told of how God's people would prosper and then turn away from their God, provoking Him to anger and He would, in turn, send a nation of snakes upon them.

Deuteronomy 32:23-24 I will heap mischiefs upon them; I will spend mine arrows upon them. They shall be burnt with hunger, and devoured with burning heat, and with bitter destruction. I will also send the teeth of beasts upon them, with the poison of serpents of the dust.

That nation is called the "Assyrian" in latter day prophecy.

As we write more about this enemy, we see from Micah 5:6, that he has an affinity for the land of Nimrod. Nimrod was, according to the Book of Jasher, the builder of the Tower of Babel, world ruler of the then-known world, and was murdered by Esau who coveted of his position (Book of Jasher, Chapters 7, 27). This all happened just before he so willingly sold his birthright to Jacob, for he had taken a prize from Nimrod that he, no doubt, thought would give him world dominance. (All that's another story).

As we said, the enemy and his leaven have a lot to do with the present march to Babylon and, as we said, this ancient enemy has done before what he is doing to us now.

Now what I am going to write next may offend some who have fallen for the war propaganda line that we must "support our troops." The problem is, they are not "our troops." They are the "Assyrian's" troops. Along the same line, people will bemoan what "our government" is doing to us or whatever but the problem is it is not our government.

It is the Assyrians. The Assyrian has already invaded and taken over our country, government, and minds. It has all been leavened and it is all part of the latter-day prophecy that we would go to Babylon. Those are not our troops and that was not our war. It is not in our interest that they fight (though they are made to think it is). They are our children and young people that are in that army (along with the mixed multitude and heathens) and we must pray for them for they are our lambs in the hands of wolves. For example, the so-called Supreme Commander (what blasphemy), General Tommy Franks, is one of the serpent people. The prayer we, as remnant people, need to be fervently praying is the one given to us in Joel 2:17:

Let the priest, the Lord's ministers, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, "Spare Thy people, O Lord, and do not make Thine inheritance a reproach, a byword among the nations. Why should they among the peoples say, "Where is their God?"

Then the Lord will be zealous for His land and will have pity on His people.

To illustrate what I am saying, you may have heard preachers (including the one writing this) say that the Egyptians conspired against and enslaved the Israelites and that the Egyptian Pharaoh (with his mighty Egyptian army) came upon the Israelites trapped at the Red Sea to destroy them. But, that was not the Egyptian government or an Egyptian army any more than our government and armored troops are ours. It was the Assyrians! Consider this amazing truth as Isaiah gives it to us in Isaiah 52:4:

For thus says the Lord God, "My people went down at the first into Egypt to reside there, then the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.

You see, it happened to the Egyptians and their government and army just as it has happened to us. The cursed Canaanite serpent people slithered in and took over. They were the parasite feeding on the host, delighting in the suffering of Israel and intent upon destroying them just as Esau wanted to destroy Jacob so long ago. Ultimately, they were the party responsible for the destruction of Egypt for their actions brought about the wrath of God.

This take-over of Egypt happened after the death of Joseph and the Bible tells us, "Now a new king arose over Egypt, who did not know Joseph". - Exodus 1:8.

It was then the clever secret oppression and war against God's Israel people began because it was then that the cursed Canaanite serpent people began to take over. This historical fact is made known in the non biblical book of Jubilees, Chapter 46. It tells us that after the death of Joseph a Canaanite king took over Egypt.

The Book of Jubilees, 46:12-15

And the king of Canaan was victorious over the king of Egypt, and he closed the gates of Egypt. And he devised an evil device against the children of Israel of afflicting them and he said unto the people of Egypt,

"Behold the people of the children of Israel have increased and multiplied more than we. Come and let us deal wisely with them before they become too many and let us afflict them with slavery before war comes upon us and before they too fight against us; else they will join themselves unto our enemies and get them up out of our land, for their hearts and faces are towards the land of Canaan. "

And he set over them taskmasters to afflict them with slavery; and they built strong cities for Pharaoh, Pithom, and Raamses and they built all the walls and all the fortifications which had fallen in the cities of Egypt. And they made them serve with rigor, and the more they dealt evilly with them, the more they increased and multiplied. And the people of Egypt abominated the children of Israel.

Just as the Bible tell us, There is nothing new under the sun, (Ecclesiastes 1 :9), so it is today. Today, God's people in America no longer can have one wage-earning father make enough to support a family of 4-8 children, plus own a home or farm free and clear, etc., etc. The enemy has abominated the children of Israel in that the once Christian God-fearing children of Israel now behave as the abominable Canaanites of old and few preachers are calling them to repentance.

The enemy is within the gates. The Roman orator and statesman, Marcus Tullius Cicero, once wrote:

A nation can survive its fools, and even the ambitious. But it cannot survive treason from within. An enemy at the gates is less formidable, for he is known, and he carries his banners openly. But the traitor moves among those within the gate freely, his sly whispers rustling through all the alleys, heard in the very halls of government itself. For the traitor appears no traitor; he speaks in the accents familiar to his victims, and he wears their face and their garments, and he appeals to the baseness that lies deep in the hearts of all men. He rots the soul of a nation; he works secretly and unknown in the night to undermine the pillars of a city; he infects the body politic so that it can no longer resist.

A murderer is less to be feared ...

A brave and patriotic American, Colonel Donn de Grand Pre, wrote a book entitled, Barbarians Inside the Gate: The Black Book of Bolshevism, Book 1: The Serpent's Sting. In it he has a section called, "The Monopoly of Mass Manipulation," which is in reality the leaven of the Pharisee. The following is taken from page 340 of that book:

The Monopoly of Mass Manipulation

Mass manipulation by government is accomplished by controlling- either directly or indirectly - the "7 M's: Money, Media, Markets, Medical, Mind, Morals, and Muscle" the last of which is embodied in the Military. The primary function of our armed forces is to defend the Constitution of the United States of America. That primary function, however, has slowly been subverted by an enemy within.

The author then identifies the source of the leaven as a thing called the "Talmud."

Coupled with suborning the roles and missions of the military is the progressive and systematic weakening of that force by a process of downsizing, feminizing, and sodomizing. Such menacing malevolence was hatched in various Talmudic think tanks, e.g., the Institute for Policy Studies, the Hudson Institute, the Tavistock Institute for Political/Psychological Warfare, and an offshoot of the Frankfurt School, the Institute for Social Research.

The Talmud is the teaching of the Pharisee and originated in Babylon. It was sent out into the world in 1040 A.O. from Babylon. [Note - that is why the captors and plunderers named the tax form the 1040]. The following quotes are taken from an excellent researched and documented book, The Plot Against Christianity, by Elizabeth Dilling:

The Babylonian Talmud, Sole Authority

You may ascertain by turning to top Jewish authorities today that the Babylonian Talmud, the written form of the Tradition of the Pharisees, is the sole authority of the so-called "Jewish" religion. Rabbi Louis Finklestein was chosen in 1937 by the Kehilla's (Jewish communities) of the whole world as one of the top 120 Jews who best represent a "lamp of Judaism" to the world. He has long headed the Jewish Theological Seminary of America with branches in New York and Los Angeles. In "The PHARISEES", his two-volume work, Rabbi Finklestein writes:

Pharisaism became Talmudism ... But the spirit of the ancient Pharisee survives unaltered. When the Jew ... studies the Talmud, he is actually repeating the arguments used in the Palestinian academies. From Palestine to Babylonia; from Babylonia to North Africa, Italy, Spain, France and Germany; from these to Poland, Russia and eastern Europe generally, ancient Pharisaism has wandered.

To the Assyrian enemy, it is Babylon not Jerusalem that is holy. Remember, Nimrod, the originator of the Assyrians, according to the Book of Jasher, built the Tower Babel at the site of Babylon. It was from Babylon the leaven went out into the entire world and it is there they intend to establish the capital of their satanic, one-world government in opposition to the kingdom, which Jesus gives to true Israel (Luke 12:32 and Acts 1:6). It was from Babylon the then known world was ruled, and it is from there the serpent Assyrian enemy intends to rule the world.

In Bible history, God used the old Assyrian empire to destroy the ten northern tribes House of Israel and the old Babylonian empire to capture the two southern tribes House of Judah. When the Israelites of Judah went into Babylon in physically and then spiritually. That is, it was in the physical Babylon their religion was corrupted to become Phariseism.

The modern-day going to Babylon, as prophesied in Micah 4:10, has been in reverse order. We went first spiritually thus true Christianity was corrupted into this thing called Judeo-Christianity and now troops are marching physically to Babylon. It is in Babylon Esau intends to rebuild the tower of Babel built by the Assyrian Nimrod.

Esau-Edom is the head of the Assyrian in Bible prophecy and is the one that God tells us is rebuilding.

In Malichi 1: 1-2, we read the following prophecy:

The oracle of the word of the Lord to Israel through Malachi. "I have loved you," says the Lord. But you say, "How hast Thou loved us?" "Was not Esau Jacob's brother?" declares the Lord. "Yet I have loved Jacob; but I have hated Esau, and I have made his mountains a desolation, and appointed his inheritance for the jackals of the wilderness."

Though Edom says, "We have been beaten down, but we will return and build up the ruins;" thus says the Lord of Hosts, "They may build, but I will tear down; and men will call them the wicked territory, and the people toward whom the Lord is indignant forever."

And your eyes will see this, and you will say, "The Lord be magnified beyond the border of Israel!"

Notice that Esau-Edom is "rebuilding" on "the ruins." This is the ruins of the Tower of Babel of old. This is why the Assyrian is quoted in the Septuagint in Isaiah 10:9, ... Have I not taken the whole country above Babylon and Chalene, where the tower had been builded?

To discover that Esau is the head man of this prophetic Assyrian requires a little detective work and the reading of the Septuagint. A word here needs to be said about the Septuagint.

It was the translation of the Old Testament used by the early church.

David W. Bercot, editor of the ten-volume work, The Ante-Nicene Fathers, said this about the Septuagint in his book, A Dictionary of Early Christian Beliefs

The Septuagint was the first Greek translation made of the Old Testament. According to tradition, it was made in Alexandria, Egypt, during the third century B.C. by seventy (or seventy-two) translators. (The word "Septuagint" comes from the Latin word for "seventy.") When the New Testament writers quoted from the Old Testament, they nearly always quoted from the Septuagint, not from the Hebrew text. Indeed, the Septuagint soon became the Old Testament of the church. After its enthusiastic acceptance by Christians, however, the Jews eventually discontinued using it - preferring the second-century translation made by a Jewish convert, Aquila.

By comparing the Masoretic text with the Septuagint in Ezekiel, Chapter 22, we can see where Esau-Edom is the head of the prophetic "Assyrian" of scripture. In Ezekiel 32:22 in the Masoretic it says, "Assyria is there ...." In the Septuagint it says, "There lieth Assur ... " Thus we see the Septuagint writers used the word "Assur" for "Assyria". Then, in verse 29 of the Masoretic text it says, "There also is Edom, its kings, and all its princes . . . ." The Septuagint says, There have been laid the princes of Assur.

So we can see that Edom is one of the princes of Assur or Assyria. [Note: There is another "key" to prophecy in Ezekiel 32:29-30 and that is the prophetic term of "northern army" is the Assyrian headed by Esau-Edom.]

Ezekiel 32:29-30: There also is Edom, its kings, and all its princes, who for all their might are laid with those slain by the sword; they will lie with the uncircumcised, and with those who go down the pit.

There also are the chiefs of the north, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who in spite of the terror resulting from their might, in shame went down with the slain. So they lay down uncircumcised with those slain by the sword, and bore their disgrace with those who go down to the pit.

Ezekiel 32:29-30, Septuagint

There have been laid the princes of Assur; they, who gave its strength to the wounding sword, are themselves laid to rest with the slain - with them who go down into the pit.

There lie the chiefs of the north, all the generals of Assur who, descending wounded, are with their terror and their strength laid to rest uncircumcised with those slain by the sword; and have borne their punishment with them who go down to the pit.

WHAT IS ABOUT TO HAPPEN

It was the prophecy in Malachi, Chapter 1, that tells us God will destroy the efforts of Edom to build the tower of Babel (one-world government) and it is the prophecy in Isaiah, Chapter 10, which tells us the why and some of the how of this destruction from God that takes place. Isaiah 10 is about the Assyrian. We shall look at the prophecy from both the Masoretic text and the Septuagint.

In Isaiah 10:6 we read: I will send him against a hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets. (Note: the hypocritical is the leaven).

This prophecy is addressed in Deuteronomy 32:22-24 with the sending of snakes upon the people. It cross-references with Isaiah 52:2 where the captive people of God woke up to the reality that they were being trampled upon and ground into the dust; it also fits Zechariah 2:7-8 which tells how the people are being plundered.

In Isaiah 1 0:7 the Septuagint reads: But he did not harbor such thoughts; nor did he reason thus in his mind, but his mind will prompt him to destroy nations not a few.

Notice that the cursed Canaanite Esau serpent enemy called Assyria doesn't want to stop with just the plunder and oppression of the Godless people (who are God's people who gave up their king - Micah 4:9), but he wants to "destroy" the nations. (The nations are, no doubt, the many white Israelite nations that came from Abraham through Isaac and Jacob - Genesis 17:6-7).

Just as our Lord God that we serve is able to cause the enemy nations to tum and fight one another (II Chronicles 20, 22,23) so our enemy and the devil he serves can make Israelite brother nations fight Israelite brother nations as they did in WWI, WWII, and the Civil War.

[Even as I wrote this, it has been reported on British broadcasting that the consensus of the European summit previously mentioned was that America not be allowed to rebuild Bagdad. The European nations will. Britain is siding with America. Could it be the two brothers, Ephraim and Manasa, who represent Joseph, will stand against the brothers who came against Joseph, and could this all be part of Micah 4:9? For Esau-Edom to have a one-world government, he must eliminate nations - i.e., national boundaries and national sovereignty, thus destroy nations. This is actually the boast this enemy is making in the prophecy.

Isaiah 10:13-14 says, For he has said, "By the power of my hand and by my wisdom I did this, for I have understanding; and I removed the boundaries of the peoples, and plundered their treasures, and like a mighty man I brought down their inhabitants. And my hand reached to the riches of the peoples like a nest, and as one gathers abandoned eggs, I gathered all the earth; and there was not one that flapped its wing or opened its beak or chirped. "

What the enemy wants is a one-world government, and it will not be, if he has his way, the government upon the shoulders of Jesus Christ (Isaiah 9:6). To do this, he must destroy all governments, (just as he has already destroyed our constitutional form of government), and the physical seat of his world government must be on what he sees as holy Babylonian ground, where the Tower of Babel was built.

This is seen in this Isaiah 10 prophecy in verses 8-9 in the Septuagint:

Even though they should say to him, Thou alone art chief. Indeed, he will say: Have I not taken the whole country above Babylon and Chalene, where the tower had been builded? Nay have I not taken Arabia and Damascus and Samaria? In the same manner as I have taken these; so, will I take all the governments. How ye graven images in Jerusalem and in Samaria; For as I have done to Samaria and her images, so will I do to Jerusalem and her idols.

[Note: Verse 9 makes me think their troops in Bagdad will not stop there for long; or it could be this is the enemy's vision and plan, and, in his arrogance, he speaks it as though it is as good as done].

This prophecy in Isaiah 10 shows us these snake enemy creatures are a tool in God's hand; a tool to punish Zion (i.e., the people of New Jerusalem), not to destroy them. But the enemy is not satisfied to punish but desires to totally destroy. In their pride (i.e., they are drunk with their power just as the whore of Babylon in Revelation 17 is drunk with the blood of the saints) they think they can do whatever they want to do. (This attitude is what caused God to stop the building of the old Tower of Babel in Genesis 11:6.)

And the Lord said, "Behold they are one people, and they have the same language.. and now nothing which they purpose to do will be impossible for them. "

The Scripture is clear that God hates pride, and the following prophetic Scripture as given in Isaiah 10:12-15 in the Septuagint about this Assyrian is self-explanatory:

But it shall come to pass, when the Lord hath accomplished His whole work on Mount Sion and Jerusalem, that I will cast a look on the stout heart - on the chief ruler of the Assyrians, and on the loftiness of the glory of his eyes.

For he said, With this power I will perform exploits; and by the wisdom of mine (own) understanding I will remove the boundaries of nations, and make a prey of their strength,

And shake inhabited cities and seize with my hand the whole world as a nest; and carry off the inhabitants like deserted eggs. There is none who can escape me or chirp against Me.

Shall an axe boast without him who cutteth with it; or a saw lift itself up, without him who draweth it; as one could lift up a staff or a piece of wood? No: this shall not be permitted.

A cross-reference to this prophecy is the prophecy in Deuteronomy 32:26-30 where-in God is concerned that the enemy serpent people become arrogant and think their success was their own doing. Then it is prophesized in Isaiah 10:16-19 against the Assyrian that he shall be burned with fire which is the fire of the day of the Lord and the fire prophesied in Obadiah 15-18.

Unfortunately, it would appear there will be great casualties. Septuagint Isaiah 10:16-19:

Indeed the Lord of Hosts will send disgrace on thy honour, and on thy glory a burning fire shall be kindled;

And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and shall purify him with a burning fire, and consume his substance like dry grass.

On that day there shall be an extinction of the mountains, and the hills, and the forests; and it shall consume from the soul even to the flesh; and he who fleeth shall be like one fleeing from blazing fire.

And those of them who are left shall be few in number, so that a child may write them down.

When this happens a change in the people's minds toward the parasite socialist government that in actuality is destroying their country takes place. Isaiah 10:20 in the Septuagint states:

And it shall come to pass in that day that the remnant of Israel shall no more join, nor shall those of Jacob who have escaped, any more lean on them who have injured them; but they will place their confidence in God the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

ISAIAH CRIES OUT CONCERNING
ISRAEL: "THOUGH THE NUMBER OF
THE ISRAELITES IS LIKE THE SAND
OF THE SEA, ONLY THE REMNANT
WILL BE SAVED.
- ROMANS 9:27

I think what this scripture means is the people had been relying on a socialistic government (run by the parasite Assyrian) that gave to them thus they "leaned on it." But the reality is it took more from them than it gave - i.e., it injured them. It's an old parasite scam of the cursed people to tax the host people one dollar, and then use that tax dollar to fund social programs, before which the people stand in line for a hand-out. But they are not handed a dollar, but 10 cents. The other 90 cents has been used up.

A cross-prophecy reference that applies here is Isaiah 32:5, The vile person shall no more be called liberal .. KJV.

This parasite method of getting rich is what the end-time prophecy of James 5:4 is about when it speaks of withholding the pay of the laborer. When the old Babylon fell, the handwriting on the wall was in economic terms and the interpretation was that the old Babylon had been weighed on the scales and been found deficit (Daniel 5:27). That system had been plundering the people and now it was to pay back according to God's law.

So it is with the prophecy in Isaiah 10:23 in the Septuagint:

He is closing an account and making a deduction with saving goodness. Because with the whole land the Lord will make a reckoning from which a deduction hath been made.

The prophecy in Isaiah 10:21-22 (Septuagint) is that it is the remnant that shall be saved:

Yes, though the people of Israel be as the sand of the sea, this remnant of them shall be saved.

Pastor Peters' Pamphlet Special!

Pastor Peters' pamphlets have always been an attention grabber to start, but chock-full of scriptures and facts that are just undeniable. Over the years these foundational and hard-hitting truths have helped open the eyes and hearts of many to Bible truths presented no where else. This Spring and Summer of 2024, order any of Pastor's pamphlets for only $2.00 each, or $1.00 each in quantities of 20 or more to pass out.

In 1929, in an effort to destroy the well-to-do peasant farmers, Joseph Stalin ordered the collectivization of all Ukrainian farms. In the ensuing years, a brutal Soviet campaign of confiscations, terrorizing, and murder spread throughout Ukrainian villages. What food remained after the seizures was insufficient to support the population. In the resulting famine as many as seven million Ukrainians starved to death.

This poignant eyewitness account of the Ukrainian famine by one of the survivors relates the young Miron Dolot's day-to-day confrontation with despair and death—his helplessness as friends and family were arrested and abused—and his gradual realization, as he matured, of the absolute control the Soviets had over his life and the lives of his people. But it is also the story of personal dignity in the face of horror and humiliation. And it is an indictment of a chapter in the Soviet past that is still not acknowledged by Russian leaders.

Laughter - The Weapon

Recently we had had an opportunity to see this old saying in action. My Grandma, who is past her 91st birthday, took care of her son who had cancer. After he passed away, she got incredibly sick, so she came to stay with us for a few weeks. For the first few days she just sat, sick and reeling from the pain. Then I noticed how she began to laugh again at the little incidents in life. Those odd, quirky and sometimes irritating happenings that surround us. One night she took a fall getting out of an overly tall bed. When I went in to check on her, she was laughing, I stared in amazement as I saw the arm of her shirt rapidly turning red from blood.

Her comment was, "Oh this old skin! You barely bump it and it just bleeds!"

On reflection, I believe I am witnessing a lifetime of choosing to be cheerful, which now holds her up during these hard days.

Philippians 4:4 Rejoice in the Lord always: again I will say, Rejoice.

Very simple, but in case we didn't get it the first time, we are told once again;

Thessalonians 5:16 Rejoice always;

It is a choice. Not an easy one but the more we decide to obey the easier it is. As the years go by, that is who we become as a person, especially when we walk through the valley of the shadow, which will be different for each one of us.

God's instruction book definitely advises us on this idea.

As I was thinking about putting this idea in writing, I read in:

This is really encouraging to me too. It brings to mind several sermons from years ago where we were taught that laughter can be a weapon against the enemy.

Psalms 52:6-7, in referring to the mischievous, lying, evil-loving man tells us what will happen.

The righteous also shall see it, and fear, And shall laugh at him, saying, Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength...

So, laughter is doubly beneficial for us. Laughter or joy is a genuine frequency, it can change the cells in our body from depressed unhealthy cells to clear bountiful ones: science has shown what the Lord already told us, smiling can reduce depression, laughter has shown to boost the immune system, reduce stress and even help produce happy chemicals in the brain.

Modern psychology now tells people, especially those struggling with depression to look for what they call glimmers, the little moments in life that are joyful. It reminds me of another quote I heard the other day; anxiety cannot exist in the presence of thankfulness. Something as a Christian I knew from the Bible's teaching; this made me take to heart, again.

Philippians 4:8 Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if anything is worthy of praise, think about these things.

If we can switch our focus in these mindful ways over time the far-reaching effects on ourselves and others especially as the hearts and keepers at home that we are as wives or mothers could be profound.
