Everything I Want To Do Is Illegal

War Stories from the Local Food Front

Drawing upon 40 years' experience as an ecological farmer and marketer, Joel Salatin explains with humor and passion why Americans do not have the freedom to choose the food they purchase and eat. From child labor regulations to food inspection, bureaucrats provide themselves sole discretion over what food is available in the local marketplace. Their system favors industrial, global corporate food systems and discourages community-based food commerce, resulting in homogenized selection, mediocre quality, and exposure to non-organic farming practices. Salatin's expert insight explains why local food is expensive and difficult to find and will illuminate for the reader a deeper understanding of the industrial food complex.

You Can Farm

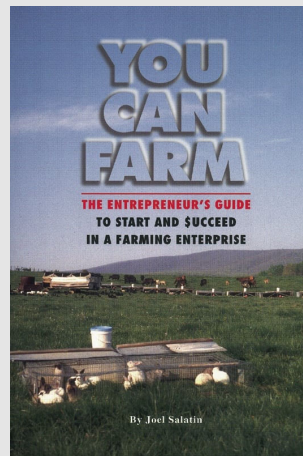

The Entrepreneur's Guide to Start & Succeed in a Farming Enterprise

Have you ever desired, deep within your soul, to make a comfortable full-time living from a farming enterprise? Too often people dare not even vocalize this desire because it seems absurd. It's like thinking the unthinkable.

But for farm entrepreneurs, the opportunities for a farm family business have never been greater. The aging farm population is creating cavernous niches begging to be filled by creative visionaries who will go in dynamic new directions. As the industrial agriculture complex crumbles and our culture clambers for clean food, the countryside beckons anew with profitable farming opportunities.

While this book can be helpful to all farmers, it targets the wannabes, the folks who actually entertain notions of living, loving and learning on a piece of land. Anyone willing to dance with such a dream should be able to assess its assets and liabilities; its fantasies and realities. "Is it really possible for me?" is the burning question this book addresses.

Greetings Remnant,

I hope and pray this finds you well and in the protection of our King, as we have just recently had a series of powerful storms sweep over the central and southern U.S. over the Memorial Day holiday weekend, killing at least 22 people and leaving a wide trail of destroyed businesses, homes, and power outages.

The destructive storms caused deaths in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Kentucky, and were just north of an early season heat wave setting records from south Texas to Florida. Forecasters said the severe weather could shift to the East Coast later Monday and warned millions of people outdoors for the holiday to watch the skies. A tornado watch was issued from North Carolina to Maryland. Kentucky Gov. Andy Beshear, who earlier declared a state of emergency, said at a Monday press conference that five people had died in his state. And, across the state of Texas there were at least 7 reported deaths due to "severe storms," said Governor Abbott.

While we see these things going on in our land, we also see many things abroad as well, like the landslide that took place in Papua New Guinea, which instantly buried alive more than 2,000 people and caused much damage in several village's.

Witnessing these events that have taken place in the last week, I was convinced now more than ever that we need to be in the shelter of the most High.

Psalm 91 Security of One Who Trusts in the Lord

*One who dwells in the shelter of the Most High
Will lodge in the shadow of the Almighty.
I will say to the Lord, "My refuge and my fortress,
My God, in whom I trust!"
For it is He who rescues you from the net of the trapper
And from the deadly plague.
He will cover you with His pinions, And under His wings you may take refuge; His faithfulness is a shield and wall.
You will not be afraid of the terror by night, Or of the arrow that flies by day; Of the plague that stalks in darkness,
Or of the destruction that devastates at noon.
A thousand may fall at your side And ten thousand at your right hand, But it shall not approach you. You will only look on with your eyes And see the retaliation against the wicked.
For you have made the Lord, my refuge, The Most High, your dwelling place. No evil will happen to you, Nor will any plague come near your tent. For He will give His angels orders concerning you, To protect you in all your ways.
On their hands they will lift you up, So that you do not strike your foot against a stone. You will walk upon the lion and cobra,
You will trample the young lion and the serpent.
"Because he has loved Me, I will save him; I will set him securely on high, because he has known My name.
He will call upon Me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will rescue him and honor him.
I will satisfy him with a long life, And show him My salvation."*

During the present events and other world problems, I believe there is a great need for us to seriously examine who or what we really trust in. Who or what gives us confidence to go on? What gives us peace? Who or what makes us feel safe? Do we really trust God for these things? Of course, some might wrongly use Psalm 91 in a superstitious way, rejecting good judgment and other Scriptures that do need to be taken into consideration. But I think our bigger problem is seeking to find our safety and peace in things and people other than in God.

From the Editor @ SFA

David said in Psalm 4:8; I will lie down and sleep in peace, for you alone, O Lord, make me dwell in safety.

And, Philippians 1:28, And in no way alarmed by your opponents—which is a sign of destruction for them, but of salvation for you, and this too, from God, is another Scripture that keeps coming back to me on a daily basis.

As we see the destruction, and what I believe is the wrath of God, I believe this Scripture explains a lot, considering both Governor Abbott and also Governor Beshear have pledged their support to the Israeli's. Gov. Abbott pledged $4 million dollars, from the Governors Public Safety Office, "PSO," of additional funding to synagogues and Jewish organizations, while Governor Andy Beshear ordered flags to be flown at half-staff this week for Israel; "To both grieve with Israel and to let them know we stand with them," explained Beshear.

"Then Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned in safety to his house in Jerusalem. And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him and said to King Jehoshaphat, "Should you help the wicked and love those who hate the Lord, and by doing so bring wrath on yourself from the Lord? But there is some good in you, for you have removed the Asheroth from the land and you have set your heart to seek God."

2 Chronicles 19:2

May the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob bless those of you that are His, bless you and keep you, make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you, lift His countenance to you and grant you peace.

GOING TO THE PROPHETS
AND TO BABYLON

GOING TO THE PROPHETS AND TO BABYLON

by Pastor Peter Peters

There is a prophetic significance to American troops going to Babylon and to the dates the war in Iraq began and ended. This treatise will attempt to address the prophecies. Of course, Bible prophesy doesn't make sense to the Christian who doesn't know who the people of prophesy are and who their enemy is.

There are two verses that come to my mind as I begin this writing: "The Lord has opened His arsenal and brought out the instruments of his wrath; because the Lord God hath a work to perform in the land of the Chaldeans. "

Jeremiah 50:25, Septuagint.

The troops marched to the "land of the Chaldeans," and God has a plan and the enemy in control of the troops has a plan. "Indeed he (our enemy) will say, 'Have I not taken the whole country above Babylon and Chaldene, where the tower had been builded.'"

Isaiah 10:9, Septuagint.

The tower of Babel was built just outside of Bagdad where the enemy plans to build (or rebuild) a world order, but God has other plans.

In reading the prophets, we can understand the events taking place in the world at this time. While reading the prophet Isaiah, this preacher thinks those armed forces will, in fact, not stop there and thinks he may know more fully the reason why someone wants them there.

This writing is for the remnant who will be saved (Isaiah 10:22) and will be based in great part on the writings of the prophets. In 2 Peter, Chapter 3, the apostle Peter tells of the coming day of the Lord and the creation of a New Heaven and New Earth (1 Peter 3:7-13). He admonishes us to "remember the words spoken beforehand by the holy prophets and the commandment of the Lord and Savior ... "

Now this preacher may be wrong in what he is going to give you concerning his interpretation of the prophets, but he is not wrong in reading, studying, and trying to understand the writings of the prophets. It is wrong (particularly at this hour) for preachers not to do so; and it is absolutely ostrich-head-in-the-sand stupidity for Christians not to give head to the prophets for they wrote and spoke of the Day of the Lord and events taking place in our very day. It is impossible to understand prophecy if one does not understand who the people of prophecy are - the good and the evil people of prophecy.

GOING TO THE PROPHETS
AND TO BABYLON

One family from Indiana recently wrote to me saying, "Thanks to you and your radio broadcast, I am fast becoming a student of Old Testament prophecy. It is absolutely astonishing how words and phrases literally jump from the page at you when you finally understand your true heritage." So it is. For those Christians that believe the lie that those we call "Jews" today are chosen people and that America is not in the Bible, they can understand little from the prophets. So we need a brief overview concerning the peoples or nations in the Bible and it will have to be brief (for those of you on our (CD) ministry, it will be a brief repeat of what you have already learned).

Brief Overview

In Genesis, Chapter one, God creates man by speaking him into existence - i.e., male and female. (Genesis 1:27). Then, later, He created Adam from the soil of the earth (Genesis 2:7); and later, Eve. (We would suggest our two CD messages entitled "The True Creation Story, Man and then Adam.")

Genesis, Chapter 3, records the fall of Adam and Eve. Genesis, Chapter 4, records the birth of Cain and Able and the curse pronounced on murderous Cain. Genesis, Chapter 7, records the flood of Noah's day (we would suggest our two CD's "What Noah's Flood Was Not"). Genesis, Chapter 9, records the origin of another cursed seed - that of Canaan, from which came the cursed Canaanites.

Genesis, Chapter 11, records the attempted building of the tower of Babel, where men would become one. In Genesis, 12, God calls Abram (whose name is changed to Abraham in Genesis, Chapter 17). The Bible tells us that God promised to make Abraham's seed as the sand of the sea and stars in the heavens and that his descendants would form a multitude of nations. This covenant promise passed to his son, Isaac (Genesis, 17:19). Isaac had two sons, Jacob and Esau, who fought with each other in their mother's womb. Esau sold his birthright to Jacob and, later, lost his blessings to him (Genesis 25:34). Jacob was blessed by his father (Genesis 27:28-29) and Esau did not receive a blessing. Instead, it was pronounced that he (like Cain) would be cut off from the fertility of the earth. He would live by the sword and be subservient to Jacob until a certain time when he would lose his brother's yoke from off his (Esau's) neck (Genesis 27:39-40). Also, the Bible tells us that Esau married into the cursed lineage of the Canaanites (Genesis 26:34) and the Ishmaelites (Genesis 28:9). Esau desired (and still does) to wipe Jacob from the face of the earth (Genesis 27:41).

Now all these past recorded Bible events have everything to do with the present, current events going on today with the Armed Forces from America having gone to Babylon.

Jacob's name was changed to Israel, and he had twelve sons that formed the twelve tribes of Israel (who were destined to form many nations - Genesis 17:6). Moses led them out of Egypt (Exodus) and prophesied of what would befall them in the latter days (Deuteronomy 32).

When they were united as a nation under King David, there was a prophecy given by the prophet Nathan in II Samuel 7:10: "I will also appoint a place for My people Israel and will plant them, that they may live in their own place and not be disturbed again, nor will the wicked afflict them any more as formerly. "

In 1629, there was the beginning of the greatest migration of people in all of history (50 million white, Caucasians migrated to the North American Continent in a short span of history). The Pilgrims saw it as fulfillment of II Samuel 7:10. The following is taken from the history book entitled, The Light and the Glory, by Peter Marshall and David Manuel:

GOING TO THE PROPHETS
AND TO BABYLON

By now, a farewell sermon had become a tradition, and it was preached by a stalwart young Puritan minister named John Cotton, whose star was also destined to rise over New England. He preached on II Samuel 7:10: "Moreover, I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own and move no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them anymore, as beforetime. "

"Go forth," Cotton exhorted, "... with a public spirit," with that "care of universal helpfulness ... Have a tender care ... to your children that they do not degenerate as the Israelites did ... "

Samuel Eliot Morison put it thus: "Cotton's sermon was of a nature to inspire these new children of Israel with the belief that they were the Lord's chosen people; destined, if they kept the covenant with Him, to people and fructify this new Canaan in the western wilderness. "

By 1629 the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob had already formed a multitude of nations and now, in keeping with Bible prophecy, America (meaning heavenly kingdom in the Gothic language) was being formed with the migration of peoples from those nations.

The following is taken from Micah, 4:1-6 and emphasis has been added:

And it will come about in the last days that the mountain of the house of the Lord will be established as the chief of the mountains. It will be raised above the hills, and the peoples will stream to it.

And many nations will come and say, "Come and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord and to the house of the God of Jacob, that He may teach us about His ways and that we may walk in His paths. " For from Zion will go forth the law, even the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

Notice this was a last days' prophecy where a nation would be formed out of many nations (mountain, in prophecy, means nation). This nation would be called Zion or JerUSAlem. The words "E Pluribus Unum" on America's national seal means, "out of many-one."

GOING TO THE PROPHETS
AND TO BABYLON

Micah tells us this nation would be populated by outcasts, just as America was.

"In that day, " declares the Lord, "I will assemble the lame, and gather the outcasts, even those whom I have afflicted. " "I will make the lame a remnant, and the outcasts a strong nation, and the Lord will reign over them in Mount Zion from now on and forever. "

Micah 4:6-7

The following comes from page 101 of the book, The Light and the Glory, and describes the early settlers of America in Virginia:

And though more ministers were beginning to draw the analogy of a new Promised Land, none had quite the temerity to suggest that the mixed bag of convicts, down-at-the-heels Gentlemen, professional soldiers without a war, and slum orphans (for the City Fathers in London had hit upon a unique solution for doing something about the swarming bands of street urchins) were a new chosen people.

In 1776 a nation was born in a day, and we are told that when Samuel Adams signed the Declaration of Independence he said, "We have this day restored the sovereign to whom alone men ought to be obedient. He reigns in heaven ... from the rising to the setting sun, may His Kingdom come. "

Micah said in Micah 4:8:

And as for you, tower of the flock, hill of the daughter of Zion, to you it will come - even the former dominion will come, the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem.

Most look over to old Jerusalem for fulfillment of prophecy. Few see America in prophecy because, so few have been taught the Bible truth that there is, in the Bible, a New JerUSAlem. The prophet, Zechariah, teaches us this in Zechariah 2:1-7:

GOING TO THE PROPHETS
AND TO BABYLON

I lifted up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold a man with a measuring line in his hand. Then said I, "Whither goest thou?" And he said unto me, "To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof." And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him, And said unto him, "Run, speak to this young man, saying, 'Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein. "' "For I, " saith the Lord, "will be unto her a wall of fire round about and will be the glory in the midst of her. " "Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, " saith the Lord, "for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, " saith the Lord. Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon.

Notice, from verse 4, that the New Jerusalem would be towns without walls (something unheard of in Zechariah's day) and it would have multitudes of men and cattle in it. It would be so large it would require an angel to measure it. Note, also, that it was called Zion and that it would need to deliver itself from "BABYLON"! This is the exact same thing Micah prophesied would happen in Micah 4:9-11:

Now, why do you cry out loudly? Is there no king among you, or has your counselor perished, that agony has gripped you like a woman in childbirth? Writhe and labor to give birth, Daughter of Zion, like a woman in childbirth, for now you will go out of the city, dwell in the field, and go to Babylon. There you will be rescued; there the Lord will redeem you from the hand of your enemies. And now many nations have been assembled against you who say, "Let her be polluted, and let our eyes gloat over Zion. "

Notice that this prophesied nation would give up or lose their king and mighty counselor (which Jesus, our King, is called in Scripture) and would go to Babylon. That is exactly what America has done, spiritually, mentally, economically and is doing now physically as troops march to Babylon.

GOING TO THE PROPHETS AND TO BABYLON

As we have preached and written, March 20th was a 91st day soldier Sabbath, and in actuality, the beginning of the year 2003. 2003 is the pivotal year for God's people and prophesied events.

Two things happened on March 20, 2003, in keeping with prophecy. One - the war in Iraq started - i.e., Americans started to march to Bagdad - Babylon (remember, it was the 20th in Bagdad when it was the 19th here, but both days are 91st soldier Sabbath days), and two - nations assembled against America. Most Americans know we went to war on the 20th, most do not know that on the 20th a multitude of European nations went to Brussels and assembled in a spirit of unity to start to form an economic, political coalition of their own. They want to set the political and economic agenda themselves apart from America. This could well be the beginning of, "now many nations have been assembled against you..." and is the work of the enemy that God said he would rescue this nation of Micah 4 from. But who is that enemy?

THE ENEMY?

This enemy is so great, so insidious, and so evil (and so ancient) that for rescue to happen would require God AND A SPIRITUAL MIRACLE!

To understand who this enemy is and what has happened to America we must now consider a commandment of our Lord and Savior that most have ignored and/or did not understand. Remember Peter told us to, "Remember the words spoken beforehand by the holy prophets AND the commandment of the Lord and Savior ..." II Peter 3:2.

Jesus commanded and warned us to, "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees ..." Luke 12:1. To do what Jesus said to do, we must understand more about this creature called "the Pharisee" and their "leaven" because it is all part of prophecy. It is paramount in understanding the enemy, from which the prophesied nation of Micah 4 must be rescued.

Following is prophecy from the mouth of Jesus in the form of a parable few understand.

GOING TO THE PROPHETS
AND TO BABYLON

He spoke another parable to them, "The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three pecks of meal, until it was all leavened. " Matthew 13:33

Jesus did not explain this parable as He did some others, but using the Bible we can possibly gain insight concerning it. As we shall see, the leaven is something evil, and thus, the Kingdom would become full of it. This parable is given right before His explanation that the Kingdom would be overgrown with the evil tares, who were the sons of the evil one (Matthew 13:37-43). It is my speculation that the woman in the parable is the great whore of Babylon (Revelation 17:1-6). As for the "three pecks of meal", some say this represents church, family, and state; others say it represents executive, judicial, and legislative; but, for sure, it is all leavened.

Leaven is evil. Galatians 5:1, 7-9 teaches us that leaven is connected with being subject to a yoke of slavery and hinders one from obeying the truth. Matthew 16:12 teaches us that the leaven of the Pharisee is "the teaching of the Pharisee and Sadducees." Americans do not know that they are being taught how to think, act, react, and behave in almost every area of life by the Pharisee, for the whole lump is leavened. They have been taught to think that sending their children to war and shackling their unborn with war-debt is good. It is the day Isaiah spoke of in Isaiah 5, where people would call evil good and good evil, for such is the leaven of the Pharisee.

The anti-Christ Jew, Edward L. Bernays, (who has been called the "Father of Propaganda), the nephew of anti-Christ Jewish psychoanalyst Sigmund Freud has been quoted as saying:

If we understand the mechanisms and motives of the group mind, it is now possible to control and regiment the masses according to our will without their knowing it ... The conscious and intelligent manipulation of the organized habits and opinions of the masses is an important element in democratic society. Those who manipulate this unseen mechanism of society constitute an invisible government which is the true ruling power of our country . . . In almost every act of our daily lives, whether in the sphere of politics or business, in our social conduct or our ethical thinking, we are dominated by the relatively small number of persons ... who understand the mental processes and social patterns of the masses. It is they who pull the wires which control the public mind.

AND TO BABYLON

False and/or erring teachers teach that American is Babylon, but she is not. She has merely, as Micah prophesied, "gone to Babylon." Conservatives say she's gone liberal and socialistic; when in reality, she has simply gone to Babylon. Old timers, who once knew of a moral, safe, sound, healthy, and prosperous nation, say the nation has gone to hell; but the reality is she's gone to Babylon. This is the case in a spiritual, economic, social, and financial way; but now, in a literal way, with marching troops going to Babylon which, as we shall see, is the home of "the leaven of the Pharisee."

Perhaps the main thing to see about the leaven of the Pharisee in relation to the war with Iraq is that it is HYPOCRISY. Jesus is quoted in Luke 12:1 as saying, "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisee which is hypocrisy." With hypocrisy is double think or double mindedness where people hold two opposing thoughts in their mind thinking both are true. This is how Babylonian sorcery spells are cast in the minds of the people. For example, the people believe a man like Saddam Hussein is evil because he sets his own agenda or doctrine regardless of the will of the people and uses military force to assert his values and to protect his interests. He acts on his own, like a dictator, doing his own thing and fighting wars with or without provocation and regardless of the desires of the people or cost to the people. So, he is seen as an evil dictator.

Then, when it is openly stated to the American people that this is what their President is doing, they see him as a born again Christian and a champion for freedom. Such is the double thinking hypocrisy of the people. The following illustrates the point and is taken from a front-page article in USA Today, 3-17-03, entitled "War May Realign World and Define a Presidency":

GOING TO THE PROPHETS
AND TO BABYLON

Going to war will be the first exercise of what some call the Bush doctrine. Under it, the United States is willing to use its military and economic supremacy to protect its interests and assert its values with or without direct provocation. And it is willing to act with or without the backing of the international alliances that it helped create after World War II.

Let's again look at the prophecy of II Samuel 7:10:

I will also appoint a place for My people Israel and will plant them, that they may live in their own place and not be disturbed again, nor will the wicked afflict them any more as formerly.

Notice it did not say the wicked would not afflict our people; rather it said the wicked would not "afflict them any more as formerly." Formerly the wicked enemies of Israel would physically attack them, fight them, and conquer them as when the Babylonian enemy of old came down and physically fought and hauled them off into physical Babylonian captivity. But this time, the enemy has afflicted and conquered through the use of the teaching of the Pharisee - i.e., the leaven of the Pharisee - and of course, there are other descriptive terms such as propaganda, mind control, brain washing, and Hollywood entertainment (that really teach people how to act and to behave). It's like the people have been put into a trance or spell from which they must be awakened. Thus Isaiah 52:1-3 calls for the nation to awaken to the reality of their captivity and plunder.

Speaking of plunder, let's further consider the prophecy of the New Jerusalem of Zechariah, Chapter 2 that needed to escape from Babylon (Zechariah 2:7). We are told in verse 8 that she was plundered. Recently, Paul Harvey reported that $40 billion dollars would be given to the United Nations from the oil wells of soon-to-be-captured Iraq to be paid back to Iraq to rebuild it; then he brazenly said that the Americans, who funded the $75++ billion-dollar war, would be paid nothing. Historically, spoils of war went to the victor, but not so with this war. You would think the American people (and their so-called Representatives) would at least say, "We want that $40 billion dollars of oil so we can have .25 cent per gallon gasoline for our cars; we are the ones who sacrificed sons, daughters, money, and our economy," but they do not think this way. They think the way their enemy teaches them to think. [By the way, on a side note, the end-time Babylon of prophecy is portrayed as a whore in Revelation 17 and 18 and many who favor the war think like a whore. The whore loves money, and many have given their love to the god of war thinking it will be good for the economy - i.e., money in their pocket. Proverbs 30:20 says the whore does not think of herself as doing wrong. No doubt she thinks she is providing a service and so the war-mongering whores who think war will help their own economy see no wrong in invading another nation. They are made to think of it as providing a service to the invaded people or as a liberation process].

GOING TO THE PROPHETS AND TO BABYLON

The Pharisees were identified by Jesus to be vipers and serpents (Matthew 23:33), sons of hell (Matthew 23:15) who killed prophets (or their son) who dared to tell the truth (Matthew 23:34). He identified them as thieves, murderers, and destroyers (John 10:10) and said they were of their father the devil (John 8:44).

The space of this writing does not allow us to go into all the history of the cursed people of scripture or to debate the issue of how these alien creatures (that the Bible says are brute beast or creatures of instinct that God created to be destroyed - II Peter 2:12, Jude 10) got here. Suffice it to say they are here and are carrying out the desire of their father the devil (John 8:48) who desires a one-world government as opposed to the Kingdom of Jesus Christ. As children of the devil, they do and are exactly as the Bible clearly tells us in Acts 13:10:

GOING TO THE PROPHETS
AND TO BABYLON

And said, "You who are full of all deceit and fraud, you son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease to make crooked the straight ways of the Lord?"

The Bible tells us they (1) are full of deceit and fraud, (2) are enemies of all righteousness and, (3) always make crooked the straight ways of the Lord.

Try to imagine a people who enjoy and feed on the sufferings and sorrows of God's people like a wolf grinning with dripping blood over a wounded lamb. Even the President of the United States, in a speech shortly after the 9/11/01 event, described the evil by saying:

"The hijackers were instruments of evil ... and behind them is a cult of evil which seeks to harm the innocent and thrives on human suffering. Theirs is the worst kind of cruelty - the cruelty that is fed not weakened by tears. Theirs is the worst kind of violence - pure malice while daring to claim the authority of God. We cannot fully understand the designs and power of evil. It is enough to know that evil like goodness exists. "

What would happen if such evil people got control of a nation while disguising themselves or acting good? (Jesus called these serpent people hypocrites, which means actor).

There was a reason God told His people to kill every cursed Canaanite that lived in their land (Deuteronomy 7). There was a reason God said He hated Esau (Malachi 1:3 and Romans 9:13). There was a reason cursed, murderous Cain said that whoever found him would kill him. You see, cursed Canaanites, which Esau married, were twisted, demented, sex-crazed creatures and Cain's curse (like Esau's) was such that it made him a parasite, for he could not produce and knew anyone who found him out would want to kill him.

So regarding the cursed, imbedded enemy today, he is a disguised, plundering predator and parasite, and soon God's people are going to awaken from the spell their enemy has put on them (Isaiah 52:1-4).

GOING TO THE PROPHETS
AND TO BABYLON

The following was sent to me by a radio listener in Ohio and it helps to explain the leaven of the cursed, parasite enemy:

Many years ago, I read an article in Scientific American about parasites and how they changed their host's behavior. (Moore, Janice; "Parasites That Change the Behavior of Their Host," Scientific America, 250:108, May, 19884).

Some of these mind-controlling and mind-altering parasites had to do with sheep and wolves and I saw in the article some parallels between Christians and Jews. While these parasites did not take up residency in the brain, they could still affect the thought process. One parasite has a life cycle that is: wolf->ant->sheep->wolf, and so on.

Problem: How do you get a sheep to eat an infected ant?

The parasite affects the brain of the ant so that the ant climbs a blade of grass. At the high point the ant becomes paralyzed so that a grazing sheep will eat it with the grass and become infected.

Problem: How does a parasite get an infected sheep to be eaten by a wolf? The parasite then affects the brain of the sheep to cause it to stray from the flock so that a wolf easily eats it. The Jew parasite changes the thinking of Christian sheep, so they are easily consumed. Perhaps the ant on the grass is the little leaven that leavens the lump?

This enemy is described in the prophetic 83rd Psalm as an ethnic group of rabid Canaanite dogs in a coalition to destroy God's people, Jacob/Israel, with Esau mentioned first and the Assyrian mentioned last. The argument has raged as to whether the enemy of Israel is a race or a religion; the answer is both as both fit in the category of an ethnic group. Ethnic groups have their own mind-set, racial similarities, look, attitude, cultural heritage, solidarity, etc. (Remember, also, people can convert to their side and thus be two-folds more sons of Hell than they - Matthew 23:15).

In the Bible, the prophetic Biblical description of the enemy from the animal kingdom is dog, wolf, snake, and

GOING TO THE PROPHETS
AND TO BABYLON

scorpion; from the plant kingdom, tares, thorns, and thistles; from the insect kingdom, locust (as in the locust invasion described in the Book of Joel). Joel tells us the locust was a nation (Joel 1:6), that the nation being invaded had an eastern and western sea (Joel 3:19), and that the locust was Edom (Joel 3:19). The descendants of Esau were the Edomites and, according to Joel, they had been shedding innocent blood (Joel 3:19). These creatures are murderers but their technique in killing is such that the victim never knows they are purposely being killed as an act of war; thus, the last day prophecy of James 5, describing the super-rich, says in James 5:6, "You have condemned and put to death the righteous man; he does not resist you." In our tape series on snakes, we tell of the many ways they do this and some simple sheep will say, "How could they do it?" Remember, the Bible says they are creatures of instinct (that is, a genetic programming) and they do the desires of their father, the devil, who was a murderer from the beginning (that is their religion). As already stated in this treatise, this enemy is ancient and so insidious and evil that for rescue to happen requires an act of God and a spiritual miracle.

We have shown how the Bible identifies such an enemy in the plant, animal, and insect kingdom. We need now to consider how he is identified in the kingdom of nations.

Little Boys, Sharp Knives and Eggs

While I don't really feel I can call myself a veteran mom, as my oldest is only seventeen, I do have four children and was raised in a slightly feral family of ten (though free-range sounds much better). I have an abundance of nieces and nephews I sometimes get the privilege to be able to be responsible for. I adore children. Their bright souls are one of the lights of my life.

As a homeschooling family, the phrase "I'm bored," seems like it could happen frequently; there's a lot of hours in a day, especially for young children, that aren't filled with school or specific activities. I see the boredom rising quickly in my own children's peers as summer break begins, and the time can often weigh heavily on them, and the "I'm" bored comment creeps in, or the need for parental entertainment, "can you play this or that with me?" The out-the-door-to-school early, home late, friends, birthdays, sports and other activities can keep them very occupied, and a sudden aspect of four to six or more hours of empty time can be daunting to them. It's not unusual to see the concern creep into many moms' faces as the summer break draws near either. The time can weigh heavily on them as well, since with young littles especially, all those hours that often aren't going to be filled with any one besides yourself.

For many years, I sighed a little as I watched most of my friends' children head off to school in the Fall. The idea of seven or eight hours of child-free time being part of it, but mostly, just like how clean things could be with roughly forty hours a week less of children's messes. I'll admit, a clean house is something I enjoy, and it hasn't happened as easily in recent years. As a firm believer in free play, our young children are continually occupied, but not by me. They definitely have structured time during the day. There's time for work, structured learning, quiet times or play, but it leaves many hours still for the eight and six-year-old to "entertain" themselves. This involves things such as me hoarding for them all large boxes I come across, saying yes, as often as possible, to paper scissors, playdough, pausing during lunch to heat up borax water for slime, dealing with muddy boys and muddy clothes (midday, because it was warm enough to play mud monster). Life lessons are woven into all these things so beautifully and naturally that they learn without even knowing it. The amount acquired is huge. It means responsibility for that time and the things done during it that have to be cleaned up by their own selves, at a later point, "boredom" is their teacher many days, only needing a little helping hand from me, here and there its hot glue guns, and the burns they get with them, even if failing the first time and learning what works better next time.

One of today's projects was carving. Our eight-year-old hasn't proven responsibility to own his own knife, yet, so it has to be loaned out. I handed him a small, semi-dull one (which his face clearly showed he was not impressed with), but off he went. Coming back a short time later, quite sure the dull knife is not sufficient. I then hand him the previously coveted sharper one, assuring him that the dull ones are a better idea, but to be careful. Not twenty minutes later, in comes the frantic, sobbing, bleeding child, a half-inch cut across the top of his knuckles. We wash and apply pressure, but dinner's burning, so a run to pull it off the stove, while cracking an egg and peeling the membrane off the inside of the shell. I return to find said child white, clammy and shaking, pale and about to pass out. A quick sit-down, with his head between his legs and a dose of bach flowers, rescue remedy (something I always try and have on hand for humans and animals alike, it's saved many a poor window-smashed shocked bird's life) and he's back up on his feet. I place the egg membrane directly on the cut. It will harden and shrink as it dries, covering and pulling the edges of it together better than a few stitches would. Then, a few hugs and gentle reminder that momma warned him about the sharp knife, and a slightly subdued and humbler boy walks away from his self-employed time. He leaves me shaking my head at the memory of his older brother, walking in with the end of a finger about ground into hamburger, one time after not feeling the need to tell mom about it because he was, "fine, I'm fine, Mom, it's fine." That one got a good soak and an old-fashioned iodine cleanse, with a loose bandage and heavy doses of vitamin C for the next week. There wasn't enough left to stitch together if we had wanted to. Hopefully, another lesson learned, and not really the hard way. No real damage was done, but something that may cause him pause for thought on another day and save him something worse down the road. And the phrase, "I'm bored, Mom," is most certainly not a frequent sound heard to echo inside the walls of our home.

SFA Prison Ministry

Remnant, the SFA Prison Ministry has been around for 35-plus years, growing from a combination of obedience to the Scriptures in regard to forgetting not the prisoners, merging years ago with Col. Mohr's Prison Ministry, as well as growing by word-of-mouth in the prisons, providing encouragement and Biblical truth to those that ask.

The Lord hears the needy and does not despise his captive people.

Psalm 69:33

As we have been updating and rebuilding the SFA Prison Ministry, we have already gotten a GREAT response from many prisoners, wanting to continue to get the SFA DragonSlayer Newsletter, Biblical and truth-filled pamphlets, and Bibles as well. Your kind and continued faithful support is what allows this to happen. Thank you for remembering!

We wanted to continue to share with you, the Remnant, some updates and information regarding the Prison Ministry. The following is a recent letter that we received from a long-time faithful member of our Prison Ministry.

An informative and eye-opening message by Pastor Peters is CD #418—Gordon Kahl Memorial. It is when Pastor Peters went to speak in the Name and Authority of Jesus Christ on the murder of Gordon Kahl by federal agents. You can't understand the murder of Kahl until you understand the murder of Christ. Order this CD, #418, and all proceeds will go towards the SFA Prison Ministry.

Dear Jason,

Greetings! I received your notice in respect to your need to update your mailing list several weeks ago. I have had an envelope addressed and stamped to send you a letter for eight months or more and, like other matters in my, "need-to-write," file, it seems I just never get to it.

I had lower back surgery on Aprils 1st, and, while I feel like it was successful and I am getting around (still with a walker), my hands are very shaky and I am having to coerce them into cooperating.

We went through a shakedown and I lost an awful lot of things — all things that I legitimately purchased. Some others lost more than I did. Nothing we could do about it. It's been a stressful month.

Writing is too difficult to continue. I am enclosing your form to continue getting the DragonSlayer Newsletter, which I have enjoyed very much.

Take care, Brother. God bless you all.
Yorie.

NEW D3 & K2

Supplementing vitamin D3 & K2 comes with all the benefits of vitamin D and vitamin K, but also some unique health benefits that are only unlocked when these two vitamins are used together.

How Vitamin D3 and K2 Work Together

Separately, Vitamin D3 and K2 both promote a healthy lifestyle. Together, they could be even stronger. New research into vitamin D3 and K2 has given way to new multivitamin dietary supplements that could unlock unique health benefits to fight aging from the inside out.

Vitamin D3 & vitamin K2 ensure that calcium is absorbed easily and reaches the bone mass, while preventing arterial calcification, helping to keep your heart and bones healthy.

Separately, K2 regulates normal blood clotting, while D3 supports a healthy immune system and supports muscle function. Some benefits of D3 and K2 together include:

- Better Bone Health: taking D3 & K2 together helps new bone growth and helps prevent osteoporosis
- Better Cardiovascular Health: D3 & K2 work together to reduce inflammation, soften the arteries and direct calcium to where it is needed in the body
- Fights the Effects of Diabetes: D3 & K2 together help reduce insulin resistance and help improve insulin response
- Helps Avoid Deficiencies: Studies show most people are deficient in K2, because of our diet; and taking D3 & K2 together helps with this deficiency and the problems it brings
