The Lost Ten Tribes

"The Lost Ten Tribes, and 1882" by Rev. Joseph Wild, D.D. is a historical and theological discussion likely written in the late 19th century. This work explores the fate of the ten lost tribes of Israel, proposing connections between these tribes and modern groups, particularly the Anglo-Saxon race. Wild's central thesis indicates that the promises and prophecies regarding Israel's future are still relevant and can be seen in the historical and contemporary events involving

Great Britain and America.

The opening portion of the text serves as a preface, wherein Wild outlines his journey and motivations for writing the discourses contained within. He emphasizes the importance of understanding Biblical prophecies, particularly those concerning Israel, and critiques traditional interpretations that conflate various Biblical groups. Wild expresses his conviction that God has a divine plan for the chosen people, which he believes includes present-day nations such as England and the United States. He suggests that these countries are fulfilling God's promises of expansion, prosperity, and a divine purpose as the descendants of the Ten Lost Tribes, and argues for a renewed understanding of their role in God's plan.

Written almost 150 years ago, here are truths of who we are and our history that cannot be ignored and forgotten forever.

This is what the LORD says: "Stand by the ways and see and ask for the ancient paths, Where the good way is, and walk in it; Then you will find a resting place for your souls.

Greetings to the Remnant!

As we are vastly coming to the close of spring and enter the summer months of 2025, there have been so many things happening and it seems like time is going by so fast. I thought about the Scripture in Psalms 74:17:

You have established all the boundaries of the earth; You have made summer and winter.

It made me think about another Scripture found in Proverbs 10:5:

Poor is he who works with a negligent hand, But the hand of the diligent makes rich. He who gathers in summer is a son who acts wisely, But he who sleeps in harvest is a son who acts shamefully.

I believe now more than ever we need to have those diligent hands and be found working them diligently. I desire for myself, and for the Remnant, to be called as the wise rather than the foolish, as I believe you also want this. At the same time, I have witnessed as I am sure most of you have a lot of laziness in our societies. "The Blessing of Diligent Work and God-Honoring Dedication," is found so many times in the Scriptures and is something we have been talking about for quite some time from the LaPorte Church of Christ.

Proverbs 12:24 The hand of the diligent will rule, but the lazy hand will be put to forced labor. (NASB)

God honors diligence.

Proverbs 13:4 The soul of the lazy one craves and gets nothing, but the soul of the diligent is made prosperous.

Diligence leads to fruitfulness, while laziness results in frustration and lack. God blesses those who apply themselves with consistent effort. Whether you're working the land, raising children, serving the church, or building a business, faithful labor reflects God's order.

Ecclesiastes 9:10 Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with all your might...

Don't do things halfway. God is not glorified by sloppiness. "All your might" means putting your heart, energy, and excellence into your task and that means whatever you are doing!

LAZINESS LEADS TO LOSS. Seasons of opportunity require alertness and effort. Just like farmers must harvest in summer, we must labor when the Lord gives opportunity. Laziness is not just a bad habit, it is a form of spiritual neglect.

Proverbs 24:30–34 I passed by the field of a lazy one... and behold, it was completely overgrown... When will you arise from your sleep? A little sleep, a little slumber... and your poverty will come like a drifter.

Neglect breeds decay, both physically and spiritually. A nation, home, or ministry left untended will fall into ruin. As we enter this new season of Summer, let us be found working with dedication for the King of kings and be found "Occupying Until Christ Jesus Returns!"

Please take time to listen to the recent interviews that I was privileged to be able to do. One was an interview with Simon Roche, from South Africa, who gave a fantastic report on the true history of S.A. and also the genocide that is taking place currently, and the media is covering it up.

Also, we had a great interview with Phil Tourney from the USS Liberty, where he did a fantastic job walking us through the events that took place on June 8th 1967. On that day, 31 soldiers were murdered and 171 were injured and God kept the boat afloat. It has been known as the day Israel attacked the USA. You can find these interviews at the website, SFAW.ORG, under Resources.

God Bless and thank you for your continued prayers and support. In Jesus Christ's service first, Pastor Peter John Peters' second,

Pray Psalms 83!

Esau/Edom and the USS Liberty

Esau said to his father, "Do you have only one blessing, my father? Bless me, me as well, my father." So Esau raised his voice and wept. Then his father Isaac answered and said to him, "Behold, away from the fertility of the earth shall be your dwelling, And away from the dew of heaven from above. And by your sword you shall live, And you shall serve your brother; But it shall come about when you become restless, That you will break his yoke from your neck." So Esau held a grudge against Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him; and Esau said to himself, "The days of mourning for my father are near; then I will kill my brother Jacob."

Genesis 27:38-41

The above passage of scripture details Isaac's promising Esau that he will not live as a peaceful man. This promise was generational and was passed to Esau's children (the Jews). Esau would not know the comfort of living off the fertility of the land (Verse 39). Rather, he would seek out destruction and war (Verse 40). Later in the passage, Esau vows to kill his brother Jacob. History shows us the Jews have proven out Isaac's promise, including the vow to kill Jacob/Israel.

As we discussed in previous DragonSlayer Newsletter articles, Jewish banking dynasties are historically tied to most modern wars. However, the blood lust for war does not stop with Jewish financial sectors. The Jews' uncontrollable desire for conflict can be traced back to the ancient Kazarian Kagens (kings) who it seemed were perpetually at war. That is until a Rus Northman named Sviatoslav decided enough was enough and set about destroying the Kazarian Empire. The Kazarian Jews fled into foreign lands to escape Sviatoslav. However, no matter where they landed, they successfully fulfilled Isaac's promise to Esau. The Jews set out to provide weapons, intelligence, money and technology to any conflict in the world and when there wasn't a conflict...they would make one.

The Jews attack on USS Liberty

The Middle East was tense long before the Six-Day War of 1967. Arab nations and the State of Israel had experienced years of border clashes and diplomatic battles. The U.S. was backing Israel, while Arab countries allied with the Soviet Union. Both sides prepared for a major conflict, which erupted quickly in June 1967.

Esau/Edom and the USS Liberty

During this period, the State of Israel wished to expand its territory. Meanwhile, the United States publicly said they were neutral but secretly shared intelligence with Israel, creating a tangled web of alliances. This mix of tension and support set the stage for the blood thirsty attack on the USS Liberty.

On June 8, the USS Liberty was in the Mediterranean Sea. Its mission was to gather signals intelligence and monitor military movements of both Egypt and surrounding countries. It was positioned near the Sinai Peninsula, a hot zone during the conflict. The ship was vital because it collected crucial intelligence which the United States was feeding to Israel.

The crew of the Liberty reported seeing Israeli aircraft flying overhead hours before the attack. At one point, the pilot of one of the aircraft dipped its wings towards Liberty's deck crew as it flew over the ship. This is a common gesture between two friendly militaries.

At around 2:00 p.m. local time, Israeli planes and boats approached the Liberty and opened fire without warning. The attack lasted for more than 90 minutes. The assault involved Israeli aircraft dropping bombs, napalm, firing machine guns, and torpedo boats launching torpedoes. The ship was hit with more than 820 rounds of machine gun fire and 42 torpedoes. The damage to the ship was extensive as was the loss of human life. 34 sailors were killed and over 170 wounded.

The USS Liberty was a spy ship. The United States government called the Liberty and its crew into action to support an "ally" in time of need. The State of Israel showed its gratitude by attempting to murder every soul aboard.

The attack was no accident. It was carefully coordinated and executed. The State of Israel desired something bigger than a regional conflict. They wanted a full-scale war, and they wanted to pull the United States into it.

It may sound like a far-fetched conspiracy theory to some.

No doubt there will be those who find it impossible to believe that a "friendly nation" would spill innocent blood to create a larger war. On June 8, 1967, the State of Israel did just that.

On October 7, 2023, they did it again.

The "attack" by Palestinians on the State of Israel on October 7, 2023, was reported as a Pearl Harbor style sneak attack.

Esau/Edom and the USS Liberty

The Israeli death toll was said to be 1,500. We are to believe this was done by Palestinians flying hang gliders and climbing fences with no opposition from the State of Israel's military. We now know this is simply not true. The following is a passage from an article from 21centurywire.com dated December 13, 2023:

Initial Nova music festival revelations were mentioned in a Haaretz reported on November 18th, where an Israeli police source confirmed how an Israeli combat helicopter that arrived on the scene from the Ramat David base, and proceeded to fire on music festival attendees, estimating that some 364 people were 'mowed-down' there. Israel's army on Tuesday admitted that an "immense and complex quantity" of what it calls "friendly fire" incidents took place on 7 October. The key declaration was buried in the penultimate paragraph of an article by Yoav Zitun, the military correspondent of Israeli outlet Ynet.

It is the first known official army admission that a significant number of the hundreds of Israelis who died on 7 October were killed by Israel itself, and not by Hamas or other Palestinian resistance factions. An Israeli police source last month appeared to admit that some of the Israelis at the Supernova rave taking place near Gaza that day were hit by Israeli helicopters. A second police source later partially walked back the admission.

Citing new data released by the Israeli military, Zeitun wrote that: "Casualties fell as a result of friendly fire on October 7, but the IDF [Israeli military] believes that ... it would not be morally sound to investigate" them.

He reported that this was "due to the immense and complex quantity of them that took place in the kibbutzim and southern Israeli communities." The Ynet article also reported that "at least" one fifth of the Israeli army deaths in Gaza since the ground invasion began were also due to "friendly fire" incidents.

In short, the Israeli military opened fire on its own innocent citizens to raise the body count. I can only speculate why this was done but I imagine the end-game was very similar to that of what happened with the USS Liberty. The Jews were fulfilling Esau's condemnation... they were living by the sword.

In John 18, we read that the Jews came to arrest Jesus and Peter drew his sword and cut off the Jewish high priest's slave's ear.

Esau/Edom and the USS Liberty

Jesus admonished Peter telling him to sheath his sword for it wasn't the right time. Jesus was referencing it was time for His arrest (Note Jesus did not tell Peter to get rid of the sword only sheath it for another time).

In the telling of the same incident in Matthew 26, Jesus says those who live by the sword will die by the sword. It's my belief that Jesus was referencing Issac's words to Esau. Esau, who is destined to live by the sword, will eventually die by the sword.

Obidiah verse 18 says:

Then the house of Jacob will be a fire, And the house of Joseph a flame; But the house of Esau will be like stubble. And they will set them on fire and consume them, So that there will be no survivor of the house of Esau,"

There is coming a time when Issac's son (the Saxon), Jacob-Israel will make good on the words of his father. Truly Esau will die with the flaming sword of our Lord and be wiped from the face of the Earth forever.

*It is my hope that the reader of this short article will want to know more about the USS Liberty and what atrocities Israel perpetrated on the brave sailors aboard that day. Occupy Until Christ Returns Part 1

*Ye are the salt of the earth; but if the salt has lost his savor, wherewith shall it be salted? It is good for nothing, buy to be cast out, and trodden under foot of men. Matthew 5:13

"Is today's modern, main-stream Christianity just a form of Early New Testament Christianity without its power?" This is a meaningful question which we would do well to ponder carefully.

In our modern mainstream Christianity, most churches whether Independent or Denominational are experiencing phenomenal growth.

While this church, and many others like it may meet the emotional needs of its people, their "true spirituality from a 'scriptural perspective' is low, and they have become like the Laodicean church of Revelation 3:17 which says to itself: "... I am rich and increased in goods, and have need of nothing ... " I'm sure these folks are pretty self-satisfied with what they have. But Jesus said that many of these churches are "wretched, and miserable and (spiritually) poor, and blind and naked" (vs. 17).

Today, the busy modern mainstream churches do not consider what may be today's most important religious question: "If they represent the Lord's people, are they engaged in the Lord's business?" If they are, with 50-million "born again"

Christians in America, why is this country headed for hell in every phase of our national existence - politically, economically, educationally, morally, and most important of all, spiritually. If they are doing the Lord's will, why is our country going downhill faster than at any time in our existence? Could it be, do you suppose, that many Christians have become the "salt" Jesus spoke about in Matthew 5:13, which has lost its "savor", its ability to act as "salt" and hold back corruption? Have many of our church people "become so heavenly minded, they are no earthly good?" Could it be that many of them are so selfish in their desire for personal salvation, that they refuse to look at the theme of National salvation which concerns 75% of the Bible? Have many of these taken Jesus as a sort of Celestial Fire Insurance policy to keep them out of hell, but they do not want Him as King, no matter how many times they sing about it, because when they accept Him as King, they must turn over to Him their full obedience, and most of them, and their pastors do not want to stop "doing their own thing." (This is not judging, but "by their fruits shall ye know them!")

I have had pastors tell me: "Get people saved and they will change the country." So, they hold great evangelistic services and people flock forward to the altar, and sign commitment cards; then go home for the most part to live the same life they lived before. On a higher level no doubt! They still do pretty much the same things; they go to the same worldly places; they see nothing seriously wrong with sins such as adultery, sodomy, the murder of two million unborn babies every year and ungodly "religious rock" music in their church. "After all, we need that to attract young people! Better for them to listen to it in church, than in a bar!" So their reasoning goes! Yet they consider themselves to be "saved." They "talk the talk, but don't walk the walk." I have seen them in a public restaurant where they are afraid to bow their head and say grace before they eat. They are afraid someone will identify them as a Christian. At the opposite end of the spectrum, are those who love to wear religion "T" shirts (their sales bring millions into the church treasuries every year,) proclaiming their love for Jesus, while often acting in a most unchristian way. The same thing can be seen in the signs that some churches put up at the entrance to their town: THIS TOWN IS UNDER THE LORDSHIP OF JESUS!

Occupy Until Christ Returns

Yet the bars still remain open; the abortion clinics operate, and I'd venture to say that if you looked hard enough, you could find a "whorehouse" or two in operation. Such a city is not under Christ's control, and the wicked men smirk at the Christians who proclaim it to be so!

In Jeremiah 23:33 we read that if the pastors were to preach God's Whole Counsel, the people would "turn from their wicked ways." This hasn't happened and is a terrible indictment on our churches and on the anemic preaching coming from most of our pulpits.

When trouble comes, White Christians (and I do not use this as a "racist term," but because the majority of those in America who call themselves Christian are white, and because this country was built on a Christian foundation), look for scape-goats to blame. Some say it is the JEWS, and they have often been a disrupting influence. Some like to blame the aliens, and they have often been a "thorn in our side." But if you are looking for the real culprit, look in the mirror, for like old Pogo, we can truthfully say: "We have met the enemy and they is us"! The Jews and the aliens are the EFFECT, not the CAUSE of our problems. Our problem is White Christian disobedience to God.

If you refuse to accept this harsh assessment of America's problems, I challenge you to study Deuteronomy 28 and see these same principles in operation in America today.

When you build a house, and want it to stand, you MUST start with a firm foundation and you build, keeping the problem of "maintenance" in mind.

There is no doubt that many Christians do not take "quality care" of even their personal property. You can see this as you drive past their dilapidated, cluttered looking homes. They are even more careless when it comes to that which belongs to God.

Many Christians see no need to show appreciation to God for that which they have received from His bountiful hand. They feel that what they have gained was because of their personal effort. They fail to consider that their prosperity came because of God's blessings on America, on the fact that the foundation of this country was built on the "blood and tears" of men and women who loved and obeyed God, before all else.

Many of these Christians have lived in the beautiful mansion called America all their lives, with few worries. Now suddenly, because we have allowed the termites into the house to gnaw holes in the foundation, our beautiful mansion is sliding down the hill, towards the precipice, which promises destruction, and all the world is waiting with bated breath to see what we will do. Will we "jump off and let her crash?" Will we "ride her down to destruction?" or will we "call in the termite exterminator, get rid of the problem and come back in OBEDIENCE to our God?"

What has caused this terrible catastrophe? Our White Christians in particular have lived in apathy for the last 75 years reveling in the music of the Babylonian dance band, as we danced to its bewitching music. Now the time has come to "pay the piper," and the price is terrible to say the least, "loss of freedom."

During these years of apathy, we have allowed the termites of the antichrist, to destroy our Christian foundation. We have done this in spite of the fact that we have a FORMULA FOR OUR SURVIVAL which will work. We know it will, for God has said so! It is found in 2 Chronicles 7:14, and is a favorite verse of many church-goers: "If My people, which are called by My name (Christian), will HUMBLE themselves, and PRAY, and SEEK MY face, and TURN from their wicked ways; then will I (God) HEAR from heaven, and will FORGIVE their sin, and will HEAL their land." But in order for this to work, we MUST give it much more than the "lip service" we have given in the past!

We can see the "lack of maintenance" on the part of Christian people in the manner in which we have allowed our Biblical foundation to crumble.

Occupy Until Christ Returns

The original documents which founded America, the Declaration of Independence, The Constitution, the Bill of Rights, when followed by a people who revered God, caused this fledging nation to become the greatest nation in the world, in a remarkably short time.

Under this government, the maintenance program called for federal powers to be divided into three equal parts: The Executive Branch (the office of the President); the Legislative Branch, (government of and by the people through elected representatives), and the Judicial Branch (the Supreme Court, which was to interpret the Constitution, not make laws). The Constitution defines the powers given to this federal government, which are few and the Bill of Rights sets down certain "God-given rights," which may never be abrogated in any way by the federal government. The first nine in essence say to government: "Thou shalt not! Thou shalt not! Thou shalt not!" Then the Tenth says in essence: "If there is anything we forgot in the first nine Amendments, government, you can't do that either without the approval of the people."

By adhering to this Constitution, we have remained a free people for almost 220 years. When this Constitution, under God's control, is adhered to, there are no limits of social decency, prosperity, and spirituality to which this primarily

Israel nation can rise and we will see the fulfillment of (Psalm 33:12) - "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people He hath chosen for His own inheritance." (See Amos 3:2. This does not refer to the antichrists of Jewry, but to true Israel, as she follows and obeys God).

Before a nation which has become "morally derailed" - as America has in this century - can get back on the track of "decency and prosperity," the people who make up the citizenry of that country, MUST understand what caused the "derailment" in the first place, and must make necessary adjustments to get her back on the track. (This is especially true of those citizens who go by the name of Christian, no matter what their skin color. But it applies specifically to those who are of the "true Israel bloodline," the Anglo-Saxon and related peoples.)

Just as nations have "institutions," so does the Living God. Webster defines an "institution" as "establishment of law or custom."

All of mankind will be judged on the basis of God's Law. Even those scoffers who say He does not exist, and those who teach in the Judea-Christian churches, that Christ did away with the Law at Calvary. In 1 John 3:4, we have a clear definition of SIN, "Whosoever committeth sin, transgresseth (breaks) also the Law; for SIN is transgression (breaking) of the Law". That's a pretty definite statement of fact! If there is no "law," if it was abrogated at Christ's death, then there can be no SIN, and we can see how ridiculous this is when we look about and see SIN on every side.

It is interesting to note that scripture says that Cain was a "sinner," (see 1 John 3:12). Yet the Law had not formally been given to Adam's descendants at this time and was not given until hundreds of years later at Sinai (Exodus 19, 20). This was an estimated 2,000 years after the time of Cain. So we can see that the LAW was God's first great "institution." This includes the decree, which He gave from the beginning that "like MUST produce like, which set the basis for his later condemnation of "miscegenation" among His people; regardless of what Dr. Billy Graham, Oral Roberts or Jack Impe has said to the contrary, and disobedience of which has caused such a mess in America.

The second great institution was the "family," which was established by God in Genesis 2:24 - "Therefore shall a man leave his father and mother and shall cleave unto his wife; and the two shall be one flesh," (family).

While the main-line churches consider the church itself and man's government to be Divine Institutions, I do not believe they qualify. The "church" cannot be an institution because it was built by Jesus Christ and was to be "individualistic" by nature. The early church had the characteristics of being mobile and able to scatter when persecution reared its ugly head.

(We may very well see that day in America).

This mobility is not the characteristic of an institution. The church of the New Testament era was known as the "ecclesia" and was under intense persecution by both the Jews and the Roman government. They were known as being "religio-illeciti" (an illegal religion).

Christian Identity churches are considered to be the same today by the government, according to the IRS).

These "ecclesia" met for mutual spiritual encouragement and edification, which individual members needed in order to have fortitude to endure persecution.

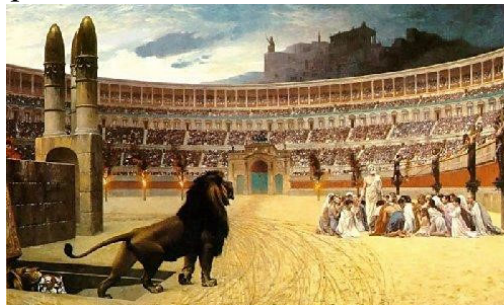

Occupy Until Christ Returns

Today, "true Christianity" is beginning to see this same kind of persecution. In fact, Jesus predicted a day when His followers would be killed by those who believe they did God service (John 16:2). Already the "sheeple" in the Judea-Christian churches are being taught that Identity Christians, many times known as "Christian Patriots," are a danger to their safety and welfare, and should be looked on as "terrorists," when in reality they love their God, their country and their families, and are in the forefront of attempts to preserve America.

The early New Testament church met house-to-house. References to geographical locations of these churches can be found in numerous places in Acts and the Epistles. In every case, they refer to individuals who assembled, not in formal church buildings, but in house-to-house worship. This is not the characteristic of an "institution." While scripture provides for the organization of local ministries, it never established any religious organization as such.

The church, not be confused with the "ecclesia," became the official religion of the Roman Empire at the time of Emperor Constantine, when many heathen practices were instituted into the church to make it attractive to the heathen. The proclamation of Constantine that he had become a "Christian," is not to be confused with Biblical salvation as revealed in John 3:3, and his subsequent reign proved this.

Prior to the time of Constantine, Christians had been under severe persecution throughout the Roman Empire. They were often used for human sport in the Roman arena where screaming crowds of heathens watched them torn to bits by wild beasts, while others were covered with tar and used as human torches to light the proceedings.

Occupy Until Christ Returns

Thousands were slaughtered by the Roman Emperor Nero, under the urging of his Jewish wife Poppaea, who hated Christians with a passion.

After Constantine came into power, and became a Christian by name, the tables were turned. As a consequence hundreds of thousands of heathen in the Roman Empire became Christians out of expediency, and willingly joined the Roman church to escape persecution by the government. It was during this time that many of the heathen practices, now found in the modern Christian churches, were instituted, such as the Easter bunny who lays colored eggs, and later the Christmas tree, and Santa and his elves. This is why, even today, we see the blessings of the Roman Catholic church on such evil lustful celebrations as Mardi Gras, Halloween, and a myriad of other heathen customs.

Roman-oriented Christianity became the official religion of the Roman Empire, and this formal "institution" became the State Religion of the civilized world, without giving it much true spiritual Christianity.

From its inception, until now, the Roman Catholic (universal church of Rome) church has dictated policy for their man-institutionalized church. The church hierarchy, (leadership) was set up by the Roman government. Their policies, though "ironclad" when first set, have changed from generation to generation as dictated by the church leadership.

Occupy Until Christ Returns

Their hierarchy was popes, bishops, priests, nuns, etc., which were never found in the New Testament church. Like mainstream Protestant Christianity today, the Roman Catholic church changes to accommodate the demands of man, not God, and this State-church does not possess the dynamics of salvational change.

All of today's mainline churches have become "institutionalized." If for no other reason than that they are "spin-offs" of the mother church of Rome. The Lords "true church" can be found inside many of today's modern churches, but His church never has and never will become institutionalized.

The main reason the Lord's church cannot become "institutionalized," is because in order to stay in operation (business) all institutions MUST be self-serving.

By their very nature, "institutions" serve themselves first, or go out of business. As a consequence most of our modern churches are founded as "institutional organizations," although this system cannot be found in New Testament Christianity. They have a church building, (the more elaborate and expensive, the better). Here the church members can meet in comfort for their worship; "dinner on the grounds;" fellowships; youth meetings; senior citizen meetings; lay renewals, and don't forget the revivals, which bring in new members, make for more baptisms, and bring in more money to run the institution.

Many of these institutions brag more about the large numbers they have baptized, and the dollars per member they collect, than of the people they reach with a living experience for the King. I know, as I have set in many of these preacher conferences and listened to this bragging. In many cases, God's work has been degraded into inter-church competition. I remember one shocking example. A large Independent Baptist church was having a Sunday School competition. The teenager who brought in the most new members was to receive a shiny new Volkswagen "bug." The girl who won the contest, was from a neighboring Assembly of God church. For weeks, she brought her Assembly Sunday School class to the Baptist church, until she won the contest, then it was back home again. I believe practices such as this are an abomination in the eyes of God.

Something is drastically wrong with the "institutionalized" church! If it is being successful, as we are told, then why is America having these terrible complex problems? They would not come if Christians were obeying the Lord!

The answer, I believe, is that in America those who go by the name of Christian have forgotten a thing called "priority."

Webster's Dictionary defines this as "the fact or condition of placing things in their proper order of importance." As a result, the direct order of King Jesus to "Occupy until I come!" has been "sidetracked," because in modern life it inconveniences Christians.

You can't "Occupy" when you are hiding in a comfortable spiritual foxhole, folding your holy hands in prayer, asking Jesus to come back and Rapture you out of the mess which was caused by your Christian apathy!

I have heard it said, "I know what you say about the danger we face is true, but I'm a 'born again Christian', you know, and I don't have to worry about those things, since Jesus is coming back to Rapture us Christians out of this world, before it gets all that bad!"

Talk about being wrapped up in a "sheet of self-righteousness," those poor, deluded folks are wrapped up in a "shroud!" But they refuse to listen to what the Word really teaches, because they long for the escape the Rapture offers. They would rather listen to the "sweet sounding words" coming from their pulpits, than what the Word really teaches! There is not much you can do to help folks like this! I know because I was one of them. They have to be hurt real bad, before they are willing to listen, and even then, some will never turn to the truth!

The reason the majority of White Christians have forgotten that God ordained us to be free, and that our country was established in the liberty that comes only through OBEDIENCE to God, is that in order to keep this freedom, we MUST abide by His command to "Occupy until I come!" You can't do that when you are hiding in a spiritual foxhole.

"Occupying" is front line military duty!

One reason many main line churches do a good job of maintaining their local "institution," while neglecting the Lord's work, is that they are careful not to do anything which might bring government retaliation against them and damage their tax-deductible status. When the Christian church appears as a threat to the "Secular Humanist, antichrist society" we now have in Washington, D.C. the first thing the Christ-haters do, is take away their government-approved 501 (c) 3 tax status, and contributions to their church are no longer tax free! Loss of revenue means more to them than our Christian orders: "We should obey God, rather than man!"

These same laws, are now being re-organized, so that in the future the government will be able to harass Christian Patriots, incarcerating them, and eventually putting them to death. (Revelation 13:17) tells us that the time may come, when those who do not comply with government regulations, and receive the MARK OF THE GOVERNMENT BEAST SYSTEM, "that no man might buy or sell, save he had the mark, or the name of the BEAST, or the number (666) of his name." Of course, those who receive this number will not be found in the "Lamb's Book of Life."

It is not difficult to see how the modern, mainstream Christian church goes "all-out" to maintain their institution, while refusing to threaten the enemy which openly seeks their destruction.

Occupy Until Christ Returns

A correct understanding of this Christian disobedience should bring any honest believer into both personal salvation, and that of his church.

Today, the antichrist governments of the "free world" (Christendom) are slowly, under International Zionist pressure, removing freedom from our people under the guise of "security." They have forgotten the admonition of the elder statesman of America, Benjamin Franklin, when he said: "He who gives up his freedom for temporary safety, deserves neither." The first cry of President Clinton, following the Oklahoma City tragedy, was: "It may be necessary for the American people to give up some of their freedoms, if they want to remain secure!"

The same international force which took away the freedom of the Russian people eighty years ago, and recently in South Africa, is busily doing the same thing in the U.S. and Canada. Following the Russian Revolution, the largest Jewish newspaper in New York City, THE AMERICAN HEBREW shouted: "What we (Jews) did in Russia, through our brain and money power, we will do in America." A well-known Jewish Rabbi said: "The ideals of Bolshevism are consonant (in agreement with) the finest ideals of Judaism." Communism is not dead, but like the chameleon it has always been, it has merely changed its color to fool gullible Christian America, and it still poses a threat under the guise of International Zionism and the New World Order. The very idol, before which most of the Christian world now humbly bows.

We are losing our freedoms, because good people, Christians, White Christians in particular, have refused to OCCUPY and stand against evil! By doing this, we have allowed our Federal government to turn from being the "servant" of the people, into an insatiable "monster" which now seeks to control us from the cradle to the grave!

In Deuteronomy 28:43-44 we are clearly warned of this: "The stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high; and thou shalt be brought down very low ... he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail." If you can't see this happening in Washington, D.C. under our past and current Administrations, it's because you have deliberately closed your eyes to the truth!

Some Christians will tell you that their GREAT COMMISSION is to be a "minister of the Word" ... whether locally or abroad. Under this premise you can witness for the WORD openly, as long as the government allows you to. You can send Bibles and missionaries, as long as you are in their "good graces."

If we as Christians want to protect our rights to "preach the Word," doesn't it make sense for us to take a stand against those who would deprive us of this right, no matter who they may be?

If we want to sponsor Christian projects overseas and nationally, it makes sense for us to protect those rights! You see, "Our freedom was not bought and paid for at Valley Forge. That was merely the 'down payment.' Every generation of Christians MUST be willing to make PAYMENT ON ACCOUNT, if we are to remain free"! Often this has meant "blood and tears, and suffering."

Is our modern Christian up to this challenge?

We often sing that great hymn of other days:
*Faith of our fathers, living still,
In spite of dungeon, fire and sword;
How sweet would be their children's fate,
If we like them could die for Thee.
Faith of our fathers, Holy Faith;
We will be true to Thee 'till death!*

Occupy Until Christ Returns

How many who sing this song really mean this or are the words of Hebrews 12:4 true of us: "Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin." In other words, very few of modern day Christians have reached the place in their Christian life, where they would be willing to give it up for the King.

History teaches us over and over again, that "Big government" by its very nature is antichrist! Someone wisely said: "If we do not learn from the mistakes of history, we are bound to repeat them!" So in order for God to bless America with freedom, we MUST be willing, under His control, to protect it!

In the last 20 years, well over 140-million people, including countless millions of Christians, have been murdered by antichrist governments around the world. We hear a great deal about the supposed six-million Jews who were killed by Nazi Germany, (this is a mathematical impossibility, for according to Jewish census figures for that time, there were never more than 3.75 million Jews living in countries occupied by the Nazis, and hundreds of thousands of these escaped to receive billions in reparations.) Why is it that the media seldom mentions the tens of millions of Christians who were murdered by Jewish-led Communism?

In every country taken over by Communism, the people's rights to "keep and bear arms," as exemplified in our 2nd Amendment, were first taken away, before the "blood bath" against Christians began. After disarmament, "true Christians," who refused to bow before the Baal forces in the land, were slaughtered without mercy. They were placed in concentration camps, where they died of disease and mistreatment. They were slaughtered by the hundreds of thousands.

Those of you who are now faithful to the institutionalized church, can rest assured, that you will not escape this fate if America is taken over by the New World Order. The concentration camps are already in place in America, waiting for you. If you are willing to "bow the knee" to the antichrists, they may be willing to let you exist as a slave, but if you compromise with the enemy, you will never make it into God's Kingdom, no matter what your preacher tells you about the "security of the believer!"

We know from a study of Scripture that One World Control is on the way. Does this mean that I am teaching that we go against Scripture, and try and keep it from happening? Not at all! Are we preventing the return of the King when we fight against His enemies? Hardly! After all, those were the orders He gave to us!

The Book of Revelation says a lot about "what," but very little about "why" certain things will take place. We must go directly to the King for this information. In Matthew 15:8, He complained about His people: "This people draw nigh unto Me with their mouth, and honors Me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain do they worship Me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men." (Rapture; Jews Chosen People; Law done away by Christ, etc.)

Are you in a church crowd who does this? Be honest with yourself, you do not have to answer to me but to God Himself. Do the "doctrines" of your church establishment mean more to you than what the Word teaches?

Why should any sane man or woman remain blind, when God offers them "20-20" vision? It would be like a man going to the eye doctor and saying: "Doctor, I'm blind. Please help me!" and the doctor replies: "Of course you are blind. You poor fool! You must open your eyes before you can see." This is true with the Bible, and the reason people in the Judeo-Christian churches do not see, is because they don't want to see the truth. It makes them uncomfortable! It scares them! So they deliberately close their eyes.

THE NEW WORLD ORDER

Occupy Until Christ Returns

When Lenin said: "Religion is the opiate of the people!" he was correct. For "religion blinds," it "stultifies," "brainwashes" its people and it is not Christianity!

True Christianity makes a man or woman free!

So knowing what was to come in the distant future, our Lord told His followers: "Occupy until I come! Not until you think I will be back soon, but until you see Me return!" and "Blessed are those of mine servants who when the Lord cometh, He shall find watching" (Occupying) (Luke 12:37).

Organized Christianity in Christendom has not "occupied" for the most of this century. The King clearly instructed His watchmen to "sound the alarm!" The Apostle Paul told the young preacher Timothy: "Preach the word (not the doctrines of the denominational church, but the WORD); be instant in season, out of season, REPROVE, REBUKE, EXHORT, with all longsuffering and doctrine." How many churches have you attended in the last ten years, where the preacher REBUKED and REPROVED his parishioners for their shortcomings? Very few! For the modern preacher wouldn't last very long if he did that.

The time has come in Christendom, as predicted in the next two verses, when; "... they (the church parishioners) will not endure (Greek -ANECHOMAI, meaning "will not put up with") sound doctrine, but after their own lusts (longing for material things) shall they heap (gather) to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables." What are those fables?

In Titus 1:10, Paul warns of "... many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision (Jews): Whose mouths MUST be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things they ought not, for filthy lucre's (money) sake." Then vs. 14 - "And not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth." Yet if you even mention this Jewish subversion in most churches, Christians turn against you with a vengeance, and call you "antisemitic," "hate monger," "KKK," "Neo-Nazi" and "Right-wing extremist!"

Occupy Until Christ Returns

As a Christian my first choice MUST be to do right in the scriptural way! My second choice MUST be to do right, even when the majority think I am wrong, remembering Moses' admonition to Israel: "Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil!" In most cases the majority is wrong!

My "no-choice" would be to remain sitting in my spiritual foxhole, doing nothing, while the country goes to hell. In other words, I would rather give an account to God. for doing right in the wrong way, than to be like the steward who hid his talent and was condemned for doing nothing!

The Lord mentioned our generation many times. He talked about those who would "have a form of godliness, while denying the power thereof." He spoke of those who were "ever learning, but never able to come to an understanding of the truth," (2 Timothy 3:7). He spoke about those who would follow the "broad freeway to destruction," because it was so much easier to travel than the "narrow road." He...spoke about us "doing our own thing, and called it the "way of destruction." "There is a way that seems right unto man, but the end thereof are the ways of death" (Proverbs 16:25).

When Jesus preached what the church world calls His "SERMON ON THE MOUNT" in Matthew 5-7, He applied two characteristics to His church, "saltiness" and "light." Only a "salty" people, who work to hold back corruption, can preserve their freedom. Christ clearly said that when Christian "salt" has lost its ability to do this, it is good for nothing but the "garbage heap!" Do you qualify here?

Only people who have "spiritual light" which shines in spiritual darkness and which exposes evil can be "light bearers." This "spiritual light" causes the cockroaches of evil to scurry for the deep corners, for they "love darkness rather than light, because their deeds are evil" (John 3:19). When the light of truth is shined on such, they scatter from fear and head for cover of darkness.

One of the signs that today's churches are mostly "un-salty" is that they are not opposed by evil men, or an evil government. The evidence is that most of the prosperous churches are too busy serving themselves and making themselves comfortable, that they don't have much time for God and His agenda, other than to give Him "lip service." So they sit in their pews, in self-complacency singing: "Free from the Law; O happy condition," not realizing that they are flouting God's authority and earning His disapproval. Comfort in the light of today's religious activities could well be the destruction of the Christian church.

During the First Century they were on fire for God, and the gates of hell could not hold out against them, then Satan began his counter-attack, and they "dug-in" and for the most part, with the exception of a few "country shaking revivals" by men like George Whitfield, Charles Wesley, D. L. Moody and Billy Sunday, the church has been foxhole dwellers ever since.

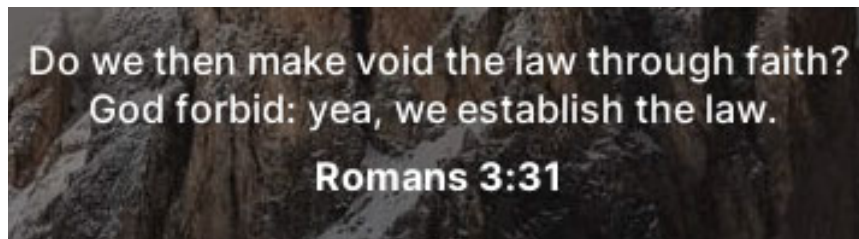

(Notice I did not include Billy Graham in this elite group, for none of his revivals has ever had a country shaking effect that was seen in the community where the revival was held. Thousands signed commitment cards. Then the evangelist left, and the community went back as it was before. The bars remained open, the prostitutes and pimps returned to their favorite corners, the abortion clinics remained open, and the dope pushers still plied their nefarious trade).

As the church dug in, someone said. "We should have some comfortable seats in church," so they cushioned the pews; someone else said: "It would be nice to have a pipe organ, so some wealthy church member purchased an organ which was dedicated in their name. Someone else suggested they air-condition the joint, so they wouldn't have to sweat when it got hot, and someone else came up with the idea of turning the preacher's collar around, so they could identify him on the street.

Occupy Until Christ Returns

Now I don't see anything wrong with any of these things. But when the church makes their comfort their first concern, then the church has lost its saltiness.

When the evidence is in, it appears that the church has become so busy servicing itself, that it has done away with God's Law. In order to justify themselves, they have come up with the false assumption that Jesus did away with the Law when He died, although both Christ and the Apostle Paul repudiated this, and Paul said in Romans 3, the chapter the liberal church loves to quote, vs. 31: "Do we make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the Law"! Most of these good folks do not realize that they are flouting God's authority when they sing: "Free from the Law; O happy condition."

As I said before: "Comfort in the church could well lead to its destruction!"

The greatest concern of an "institution," whether it is the church or the government is "self-preservation" (survival), and the survival of the "institution" depends on the maintenance it receives. Just as an automobile will not run very well without regular oil changes, so the established church will cease to exist, when it allows itself to accept the "evolutionary process in place of creationism."

The government today is running on the "evolutionary process," so let's see what it has given us!

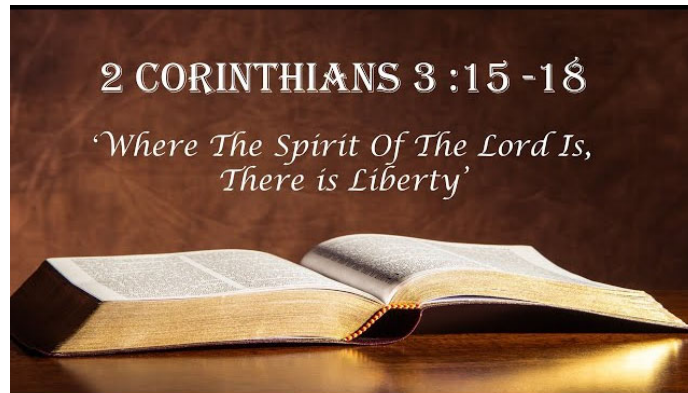

The sum total of everything wrong in America today has its foundation in the "evolutionary theory." The first thing wrong with "moral" wrong, whatever it may be, is that it is the very expression of lies." Evolution is the "big" lie!

Occupy Until Christ Returns

It is the "mother of all lies," since it comes from the father of lies, Satan Himself. One of the harshest denunciations of Jesus was against the established church of His day, when He told the Pharisees: "Ye are of your father the devil; and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks of his own; for he is a liar, and the father of it" (John 8:44).

Remember now, those are the words of the King!

In the last century, the adversary gave the task of promoting the "evolutionary lie," to a willing disciple, an educator named John Dewey. He was an avowed atheist who openly declared: "There is no God!" He stated that his greatest task, through progressive education was to "separate the hearts and minds of children from the notion that there is a God and thus prepare them to become the International children of the future."

JUDAH'S SCEPTRE AND JOSEPH'S BIRTHRIGHT

An Analysis of the Prophecies of the Scriptures in regard to the Royal Family of Judah and the Many Nations of Israel, the Lost Ten Tribes

J. H. ALLEN

A notable and immensely significant sign of the times is the revival of interest in Old Testament prophecy that is beginning to be strongly felt in Anglo-Saxon countries. This book presents facts and considerations which everyone must sometime take into account, for they are destined to become important factors in world affairs.

A reviewer in the Baptist Messenger says, "This is one of the most interesting volumes we have read in many a day...and we confess that the arguments produced by Mr. Allen seem to be unanswerable. It is more thrilling than Western fiction. The description of the scarlet thread, the royal remnant, and the part played by Jeremiah in the preservation of the ruler for David's throne, will cause you to lose sleep rather than go to bed without knowing the outcome."
