

Introduction to the Bible Reading Plan

In an age of confusion, deception, and growing darkness, there remains one unchanging source of truth, light, and life—the Word of Almighty God.

This Bible Reading Plan has been prepared to help guide you through the Scriptures with purpose, consistency, and reverence. It is not merely a schedule, but an invitation: an invitation to walk daily with the Lord, to hear His voice, to understand His will, and to be strengthened in spirit for the days in which we live.

God’s Word is not meant to sit unopened on a shelf. It is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, able to discern the thoughts and intentions of the heart. Through it, we are corrected, instructed, comforted, and equipped for every good work. As you commit yourself to regular reading, you will find that Scripture interprets Scripture, history reveals prophecy, and the plan of God unfolds with clarity and power.

Do not be discouraged if you miss a day. Simply return and continue forward. Faithfulness is built over time. Even a small portion of Scripture, read with a humble and obedient heart, can change the course of a life.

We encourage you not only to read, but to study:

- Read prayerfully, asking the Holy Spirit for understanding
- Mark passages, take notes, and reflect on what you read
- Compare Scripture with Scripture

Discuss what you learn with family and fellow believers

Most importantly, allow God’s Word to shape your thinking, guide your decisions, and strengthen your faith. These Scriptures were given to instruct us, warn us, encourage us, and prepare us for endurance in these last days.

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.” — Psalm 119:105 (NASB)

May this reading plan help you grow in knowledge, wisdom, courage, and steadfast faith as you seek the Lord with all your heart.

PUBLIC LAW 97-280 – OCTOBER 4, 1982

STAT.1211

Public Law 97-280

96

97th Congress Joint Resolution

Authorizing and requesting the President to proclaim 1983 as the, "Year of the Bible."

WHEREAS the Bible, the Word of God, has made a unique contribution in shaping the United States as a distinctive and blessed nation and people;

WHEREAS deeply held religious convictions springing from the Holy Scriptures led to the early settlement of our Nation;

WHEREAS Biblical teachings inspired concepts of civil government that are contained in our Declaration of Independence and Constitution of the United States;

WHEREAS many of our great national leaders--among them Presidents Washington, Jackson, Lincoln, and Wilson--paid tribute to the surpassing influence of the Bible in our country's development, as in the words of President Jackson that the Bible is "the Rock on which our Republic rests";

WHEREAS the history of our Nation clearly illustrates the value of voluntarily applying the teachings of the Scriptures in the lives of individuals, families, and societies;

WHEREAS this Nation now faces great challenges that will test this Nation as it has never been tested before; and

WHEREAS that renewing our knowledge of and faith in God through Holy Scripture can strengthen us as a nation and a people: NOW, THEREFORE, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President is authorized and requested to designate 1983 as a national "Year of the Bible" in recognition of both the formative influence the Bible has been for our Nation, and our national need to study and apply the teachings of the Holy Scriptures.
